Teacher Salaries Raised Slightly

School Art Show Slated Sunday at Pine Grove

The second annual Orinda Union School District-wide art show is scheduled for Sunday between 1 and 5 p.m. at the Pine Grove School auditorium.

Mrs. Florence Rossi, district art teacher, stresses the point that the exhibit is in no sense a contest, but rather a display of art activities that are carried on through the year by the classroom teachers.

VARIOUS art media and techniques have been employed. The kindergarten through eighth grade display representing the work of students enrolled in the district's five elementary and two intermediate schools illustrates the various stages of art development.

Visitors to the show will see the children's creative expressions in pencil, ink, charcoal, chalk, poster paint, transparent water color, printmaking material, puppetry, sewing and weaving and sculpture.

"WE ARE indebted to those who have helped in this project," said Mrs. Rossi. "The maintenance department of the district has provided us with 20 four-by-eight-foot panels for the show; the parents will help in setting up the show on Friday and Saturday, doing lettering work, making cardboard identification plaques and collecting and delivering the individual school displays."

Junior College 'Holding Line'

The governing board of the Contra Costa Junior College District Monday night committed itself to a policy of "holding the line" on taxes for the 1961-62 fiscal year.

They now have under study a preliminary budget which retains the district's current 41.3 cent tax rate.

The new budget amounts to $3,899,229, an increase of $42,274 over that for the year just ending.

DISTRICT superintendent Drummond J. McCunn described the document as "tight — without the slightest padding," adding that $375,000 in requests for additional personnel, supplies and equipment were deleted in order that expenditures would not exceed revenues.

Classified Ad Deadlines Will Be Advanced

Memorial Day is coming—Tuesday, May 30, to be exact. And, in honor of this national holiday, Sun offices will be closed.

Consequently, if you are thinking of placing—or canceling a classified ad, you'd better do it early.

Deadline for placing classified ads which will appear in the Sun Shopping News Wednesday and in the Pleasant Hill Sun, Walnut Creek Sun, Lafayette Sun and Orinda Sun on Friday, June 2, is 10 a.m. on Monday.

If you wish to cancel a classified ad, you will have to place your cancellation by noon Saturday, May 27.

So, put your classified affairs in order now and relax on Memorial Day.

Orinda Park Hills Residents Form New Association

The residents of the area formerly known as Warford Mesa and Orinda Park Manor have formed a Home Owners' Association under the name of Orinda Park Hills, according to Mrs. Fred Egli, secretary.

This home owners' association was formed upon the request of a number of property owners and the first meeting was held June 14 at Glorietta School.

The by-laws have now been drawn up and the articles of incorporation filed in Martinez. A membership drive is under way, with an attempt being made to contact every resident individually.

THE PURPOSE of this association is for the betterment of the entire area. It will serve as a representative body for the immediate area through its officers and directors. It will cover welfare and improvement of the area and problems relating to schools, zonings, nuisances, accident prevention, etc.

"In brief, the association will act for the benefit of its residents should the occasion arise," Mrs. Egli said.

The following residents of the area were elected interim officers at a meeting of the acting board of directors on May 16.

W. A. Newfield, president; J. P. Haley, vice president; Mrs. Fred Egli, secretary, and Paul Catti, treasurer.

The forenamed will act as officers only until an election of a board of directors takes place at a general meeting to be held September 12. The association is a non-profit corporation and the yearly membership fee is $2 per family.

Those interested in joining the association or in learning more about it may call the secretary, Mrs. Egli, CL 4-5240.

Tax Committee Formed to Guard Against Increases

A committee to investigate taxation and assessments in Orinda was authorized Monday night by the board of directors of the Orinda Association.

Formed at an unofficial meeting last week held at the home of Les Guthrie, the committee does not plan any public protest meeting at the present time, according to Bruce Howard, association president.

HOWEVER, Howard stated, the committee plans to further discuss the reassessment program in Orinda with the county tax assessor. "We want to take a close look at the reassessment program involved and the basis for it," he commented.

Divided into five groups of three men each, the tax committee plans to have a representative at all board meetings of groups within Orinda that have tax jurisdiction. These would include the fire district, school district, parking authority and others.

"We want to try to impress on these groups the people's desires for a lower tax rate. The reassessment has been done, but it should result in more total money raised.

"It should be possible to lower the tax rate now," Howard remarked.

LES GUTHRIE of 3 Camino Del Cielo is chairman of the tax committee. Among those serving with him are Julian Unruh, William Corbett, Eric Nielsen and Charles Dana.

In other business, the Orinda Association board discussed the recent membership drive. Howard said that memberships had not come in as quickly as expected. A letter will be sent to every homeowner in Orinda this week explaining the tax reassessment program, the association's work in this direction, and a request for membership.

Gas Prices Hold After Big Hike

The optimistic motorist who had hoped gas prices would be lowered again is a disappointed man this week.

Major stations and independents have seemingly reached a happy situation after Standard Oil Company of California ordered its stations to raise their price seven and eight cents last week.

The ultimatum resulted in a price hike to 29.9 for regular gasoline at all major stations after being as low as 21.9 during the three-month "war."

Independent stations are now selling their regular product at 27.9. Their low asking price during the "war" was 19.9.

Ethyl at most major stations is now 32.9 while independents are asking 29.9 or 30.9.

During the price slashing the price of ethyl gasoline dropped to 23.9 at some major stations.

The latest boost appears to have the cooperation of all station owners.

However, some major stations have dropped their prices by one cent in the past few days.

Official Approval Needed For Summer Job Facililty

By CAROLE GOOD

Students at Miramonte and Acalanes High Schools will be interviewed and applications for summer employment will be taken May 31, June 1 and 2 by representatives from the State Employment Office located at St. Mary's College. During the past three weeks, according to Charlotte Ketterer of the employment office, some 150 to 200 applications from high school students have been received.

"Students are being placed in odd jobs and temporary jobs after school and weekends now," said Mrs. Ketterer.

"EMPLOYERS are placing orders for help all the time," she added.

The jobs are mostly on a day to day basis. The type of jobs offered are predominantly domestic, i.e., yard work for boys and baby-sitting for girls.

Wages are set by the employer. Prevailing wages for yard work run from a dollar to a dollar and a half per hour. Babysitting rates are usually 50 cents per hour. However, each employer can set his own rate and the student worker can accept or reject, Mrs. Ketterer explained.

EMPLOYMENT for high school students particularly in the summer has been the concern of many people in the Orinda, Lafayette, Moraga area.

May 19 a meeting was held to discuss summer employment at the Home Builders Association in Lafayette.

Among those attending were Mrs. E. W. Paulson of Lafayette, Mrs. Marjorie Walker of the Berkeley State Employment office, Lee Schell, president of the Lafayette Rotary, Chuck Johnston, Lafayette chamber secretary; Charlotte Price, manager of the St. Mary's state employment office; Lloyd Hunt, Miramonte Rotary; C. L. Odegard, Lafayette chamber.

THE PURPOSE of the meeting was to decide how to place local high school students in summer jobs.

Since the Berkeley State Employment office has jurisdiction over this area, Mrs. Walker reported to the group.

Mrs. Walker said a summer employment office could be operated "only if it pays for itself."

An office "pays for itself" only if there are sufficient jobs to meet the demand for them, she commented.

SHE SAID the state would be willing to staff an office during the summer on a pilot basis if office facilities were provided.

Charlotte Price, manager of the St. Mary's office, told the group, Brother S. Albert had extended the hospitality of the employment office facilities at the college for use during the proposed pilot study.

Thus it seemed that using the facilities at St. Mary's would fill the needs on a pilot study basis.

However, Mrs. Walker told the group "I will await your proposal."

SHE TOLD The Sun Wednesday no written proposal or formal acceptance of the plan based on the hospitality of St. Mary's had been received from the appointed chairman of the meeting, Leo Schell.

Until a written or official acceptance of the proposal by Mrs. Walker to staff the St. Mary's office at the hospitality of Brother S. Albert has been received, officially there is no summer employment office for local high schoolers.

In the meantime, pending official approval, applications from local teens will be accepted at the high schools.

Acalanes Dist. Teachers Get 3.3 Per Cent Raise

A new salary schedule calling for a 3.3 per cent increase for teachers was approved this week by trustees of the Acalanes High School District.

Based on a starting salary of $5100 a year for teachers with a BA degree and no experience, the schedule progresses through six classifications of training and 14 years of experience to a maximum salary of $9675.

With five additional years of teaching experience for a total of 19 years, the maximum was set at $10,200.

THREE PLANS were considered by the trustees, including a schedule based on proposals submitted to the board by teacher representatives at the last regular meeting.

Each was weighed carefully considering the amount of funds available for salaries, limitations imposed by operating tax rates and the general financial condition of the district.

It is expected that the adopted schedule will not increase the current tax rate.

Under the adopted schedule, $200 additional salary will be paid for every 15 units of additional training to a maximum of 75 semester hours and $275 for each year of teaching experience.

TWELVE UNITS of training credit will be granted for possession of the master's degree. Total cost of the increase amounts to about $53,000.

A proposal by the teachers' association to tie the salaries of deans and principals to teachers' salaries by a ratio factor was rejected in principle by the board.

District architect Richard Banwell reported to the board on a drainage problem at the Rheem Center site of the district's fifth high school, scheduled for construction this fall.

Superintendent Neil M. Parsons recommended that the trustees communicate with county supervisors urging that the widening of Tice Valley Boulevard be placed on the budget for the coming year since the widening has been postponed for several years.

WITH THE increase of enrollment at Del Valle High School, pedestrian traffic will be a greater hazard than in the past.

In other action the board awarded a contract for the purchase of chairs and desks for $11,840.

It accepted a bid of $3465 for language laboratory materials, sold a used piano for $150, called for bids for the installation of utility connections to the science laboratory at Las Lomas High School.

Also bids for the installation of a folding partition at Miramonte High School to convert a large lecture room into part-time regular classrooms.

Miss Widener Is Again Honored

For the third year, Sharon Widener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Widener, 132 Overhill Road, Orinda, was chosen one of the ten outstanding women at Colorado State College.

County Agency For Industry Is Favored by Coll

Creation of a Contra Costa County Industrial and Commercial Development Commission has been proposed by Supervisor Tom Coll.

The new commission would have the power to advertise the resources and attractions of the county for industry and trade, and to collect and maintain an exhibit of the county's products and industries for the same purpose.

Coll said the new commission would coordinate and give direction to the existing groups which are working in this direction, such as the County Development Association, the various chambers of commerce and the County Taxpayers Association.

See Editorial

Coll sad the exstng groups should be consulted on the manner of forming the new commission. And the County Development Association should act as an advisory board to the supervsors n ths matter. It mght become a permanent advisory board to the commission.

The initial budget for a secretary and other help might amount to about $25,000 per year, Coll said.

COLL DID not suggest in his report that the county should support financially two such agencies, and he did not refer directly to the subject during 1960-61 the County Development Association received $69,812 for its activities.

He said:

"If we analyze this question carefully I feel we can arrive at the answer by noting first that industry in our county pays approximately one half of our real property taxes—we need more of it.

"SECOND, we have a multitude of special districts, not under the control of the Board of Supervisors that have independent taxing powers.

"The first step we must take is to form a commercial and industrial development commission to launch an all-out attack encouraging and promoting industrial and commercial expansion.

"This must be achieved by coordinating the work of the many organizations working in this field today in our county.

"With all our efforts pointed to one goal the end will be easier to achieve.

"The data set forth in this report and further information which we can obtain through our administrator's department and the Taxpayers' Association, I am sure will further convince the Board of Supervisors that this proposed commission will be the most important segment of our government today.

"IF IT achieves the ends that I feel it will, our real property taxes will be substantially reduced in the future . . ."

Girl Leads in Most Popular Grad Contest

Jill Greenwood of Clayton Valley High School is the first week leader in the "Most Popular Grad" contest, sponsored by the retail merchants division of the Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce.

The announcement was made by Bruce Lee, division chairman, on the basis of partial tabulations made from ballot boxes of 65 participating Walnut Creek stores.

See Page 13 for Pictures

Runners-up for the first week are Philip Bechtel of San Ramon High, Steve Wells of Pleasant Hill High, and Judy Best of Las Lomas High.

Lee's announcement also included a statement that "scissors have been busy in Central Contra Costa County, as indicated by the great number of ballots clipped from area newspapers and deposited in ballot boxes."

"The committee could be faced with a monumental task of tabulation if the pace of voting continues, but we are expecting an increasing degree of interest," he said.

The "Most Popular Grad" contestants include a graduating senior boy and girl from each of eight central county high schools.

Schools represented are Las Lomas, San Ramon, Miramonte, Acalanes, Pleasant Hill, Alhambra, Mt. Diablo, Clayton Valley.

Ballots are printed in all editions of local newspapers and shoppers through the deadline date for voting next Friday.

Area residents simply mark their choice on a ballot, clip, and deposit in one of the participating stores in Walnut Creek.

Stores are identified by large, colored window cards with a most popular grad contest theme.

No purchases are necessary for voting eligibility, and residents may deposit as many ballots as they can clip.

First prize in the contest is a free, eight-day vacation trip to Hawaii with the Chamber's annual Hawaiian Holiday tour in August. Seven runner-up prizes are also included.

School Trustees Grant 1.6 Per Cent Increase

Trustees of the Orinda Union School District voted Monday to give teachers a 1.6% salary increase.

Approval of the increase was given after a lengthy discussion which included statements from the floor as well as arguments pro and con among the trustees.

Teachers, who had asked for a 6 per cent increase, were reportedly grumbling over the board's action. Teachers present at the board meeting were visibly disturbed.

PHILIP BUSH was the lone no vote when the salary increase was put to a vote. Bush has made an extensive study of teacher salaries in the county and a comparison of same with those of business personnel in comparable fields.

He presented these findings to the board at a previous meeting. The facts revealed that not only are Orinda teachers currently receiving salaries higher than all but two other districts, but that the salaries compare favorably with those in comparable fields of business and industry.

Bush pointed out that in addition to the security of their jobs, teachers actually work only 77 per cent of the work year. (Editor's note: Mr. Bush has volunteered to make the results of his research on salaries and comparisons available to the public. Complete statistics will be released in The Sun next week.)

Bush is in accord with the board that the teachers are doing an outstanding job in Orinda, however he believes a new method of salary increases should be devised. He mentioned the merit system in particular.

IN OTHER business the board postponed decision on a salary increase for classified personnel. J. Jentges, business manager, was asked to prepare a comparison of classified salaries in neighboring districts to present at the next board meeting.

The district budget, including a 1.6 per cent proposed increase for classified salaries, was temporarily approved by the board. Whatever increase, if any, will be added to the budget which now stands approved at $1,657,825.

Interest in the district budget was greatly stimulated by the recent reassessment program which has hit hard in Orinda. More than 50 residents were present at the board meeting to listen to the budget and salary deliberations.

ONE TAXPAYER who said he had a 50 per cent increase in taxes due to the high assessment placed on his property remarked "I am interested in seeing that things stop increasing, why can't the teachers' salaries remain status quo? Their automatic increase should be enough to compensate for the increase in the cost of living."

Another taxpayer said, "We are here to try to stop increases. Let's face it, the bank is broke."

Nathan Gray, board chairman, brought up the point that State Aid goes down as assessments go up increasing the district's ability to pay. Jentges said that the district would lose about $47,000 in ADA because of ability to pay.

A SPOKESMAN from the audience questioned the board as to ways and means of manipulating to keep State Aid and possibly get more Federal Aid. Whereupon another taxpayer arose to say, "There is no Santa Claus. This money has to come from somewhere and that somewhere is us."

Rampaging Truck Kills Its Driver

A spectacular accident occurred Wednesday morning on Mt. Diablo Boulevard just west of Orinda. A San Leandro truck driver was run over and killed by his own truck when it went out of control and hurled him to the pavement.

He was identified as Anthony Nunes, 34, of 521 Juana Avenue, employee of a grocery chain. Witnesses said Nune's heavy truck and trailer was westbound between the Orinda crossroads and the Caldecott Tunnel when it suddenly veered to the right, struck a culvert and a utility pole.

The truck then rolled across five traffic lanes to the opposite side of the highway, throwing Nunes from the truck midway, witnesses said. The truck halted on the highway shoulder.

Harvard Medical Alumni Name Dr. J. Lawrence

Dr. John H. Lawrence of Orinda, professor and chairman of the division of medical physics, physician-in-chief of the Donner Pavilion, and director of the Donner Laboratories at the University of California, Berkeley, and a member of the Class of 1930, Harvard Medical School, today was named president-elect of the Harvard Medical Alumni Association.

Hats Off To...

Mrs. Tillie Lucas Who Manages Rummage Sales

A summer bouquet, please, for that perennial Orindan, Mrs. Tillie Lucas, who recently wrapped up the king-size Santa Maria rummage sale and is already embarked on the one for '62.

As chairman of the grand-daddy of all rummage sales (it runs a full month plus), Tillie recalles the first Santa Maria rummage sale held way back when Orinda was a little burg. Orindans strolled the quiet roads to spend the day socializing over the bargains for sale on the porch of the deLaveaga home. The first sale netted $50, the last sale over $5000.

THE VIVACIOUS lady, married to Jim Lucas of the large Lucas clan, first came to Orinda as a bride 33 years ago, setting up housekeeping in Moraga. (Jim worked at the new Orinda Country Club then and had a green hand in planning its flower gardens.)

The mother of four sons and one daughter, Tillie's activities have run the gamut from scouts to school to civic and back all over again. The flag she made for her son Vernon's Cub Scout den (as a first den mother) was still in existence some 16 years later when she was back in Cubs again with her boy Randy four years ago.

CHURCH AND family interests are her mainstay as well as the Wildwood Acres resort in Hunsaker Canyon, which she and husband to hold all the Lucas clan for a get-together!)

Jim opened several years ago. (Now they have a place big enough

The Pleasure of Your Company

PINE GROCE in the Groove . . . After seeing the terrific talents on stage for The Roaring Twenties Show produced by Pine Grovers & presented to the Parents' Club last week, it's a foregone conclusion that if the adults put on Absurdia in Suburbia again, they'd have to Go Some to top those kids!

Space doesn't allow mentioning all the acts but the gimmick of Gangster Al Capone as MC was terrific. The show opened w/Little Caesar's lines: "Listen Youse Guys out there. You're gonna sit there & like the show or else. . . ."

Everyone's act was polished to perfection & you could have heard a pin drop when "The Tropicals" sang—sounded just like the Kingston Trio!

HOW ABOUT one more time around w/show to be given at Miramonte? Even if you don't have kids in the show, it's worth a Wonderful Evening!

BE SURE TO get your ballot in for either Joan Eberhart or Bill Caldwell, Miramonte seniors who are our local entries in the county-wide "Most Popular Grad" contest. Now's the time to mention too, that a para. was dropped from the column on Sr. Play write-up &— it was full of accolades for Joan who played her part to the hilt w/such ease & finesse. Besides, she's AWFULLY CUTE!

Dog Gone It! When you discovered that T-Bones had lost his lease & was gone from the X-roads, didn't you fret so much you took a ride out to his Rheem Stork Club for a little snack?

CELEBRITY CORNER: Jazzman Stan Getz & his Swedish wife who live in a 16-room castle in Elsinore, Denmark, have been enjoying the hospitality of Jerry & Gwynn Donchin. Jerry used to play sax w/Stan's group.

Orinda's Cookie Lavagetto, mgr. of Minneapolis Twins, got the full-face treatment on a recent Sports Illustrated cover . . . & architect Lee Darrow whose Marin house design won for him a Sunset award, gets the grand honors again in a current issue of Life that selects his award-house along w/3 others.

Listen, Youse Guys!

THE DIAPER LINE: The Hugh Riegers evened up the score! Hooray! & a Big Welcome to little Barbara Allison who joined the prolific clan last Monday morn. Courtesy of the Reigers, a batch of bubble gum was given out at school on the Big Day & that's a new twist. Well! We can't have the kids smoking ceeeeegars!

FIRST EDITIONS are anticipated in the Fall for Gary & Judy Lucas, Dick & Janet Brauenr . . . & the more the merrier for Sonny & Robert Schmidt. They'll greet their SIXTH in September! Another for the Don Dotens in the fall.

SUBURBAN CANDIDS: Night before the Linden Branch Tasting-Bee, there sat decorous Eva Parker in a plain old pick-up truck in Lucky's Pkg. Lot, & under Little Eva's Parka peeked pink plastic curlers & a pink hair-net proving the girl's MAD for pink & also that she & husband Norm had been working like beavers to ready the scene for the Children's Hospital benefit held at the the Graber's Rheem rez. last Thurs.

CONGRATS TO Ron Winkler of Orinda Troop 207 who was advanced to the rank of Eagle Scout in a Tues. ceremony at Sleepy Hollow School!

MORE LOOK ALIKES: Caroline Read & Audrey Hepburn; Susan Cox the young Queen Elizabeth . . . (Sue's friends are calling her The Duchess! She wears a pretty tiara-crown atop her crowning glory.)

A GROUP of High School Gals who have Given Up Boys (NO!) are calling themselves "The Un-mentionables"—or have we mentioned that before?

MOTHER'S DAY story: Judy Howes was visiting friends, the Phil Davidsons in Lafayette, when new parents Chris & Phil perked up their ears . . . cooing over their new son Robbie, Judy said "Gee, I wish I could take him home w/me!" "You mean it?" said Chris, packing up her son's bottle & booties. So while the New Mother "slept in" the next morning, Judy's surprised household awakened to the sound of the 6 ayem feeding!

ZODIAC STORY: Tribune-man John O'Connor && his wife Marguerite are both born on the same date, April 14, a few years apart . . . BUT . . . Beat this! Jerry & Lois Pixley were both born on the same date, March 12, only HOURS apart.

WOULDN'T YOU know it? The winner of a Femme Fatale slenderizing course at the recent Diana luncheon at the Lake Merritt was not a plump little matron but a Slim Young Thing & that's the way it always goes!

HOME FROM HAWAII, both the Stu Hendersons & Jim & Eleanor Jackson . . . while Toyshop man Leon Krog & wife Lois have left for a vacation to Michigan & will return w/a camper-car for easy summering w/their sizable family.

WHEN THE STORM cut off the electrical power from 1 a.m. until 8 a.m. in some parts hereabouts, it was a cruel cold morning . . . No heat in the electric blankets, no place to heat the baby's bottle (unless you were cooking w/gas!) & Everybody was late for work since the alarm didn't go off on the electric clock, But neither sleet nor storm nor loss of electric power could keep Sylvia Cox from her Cup of Tea . . . Bob made it FOR her by using a bunsen burner!

CHEEZ IT, DA COPS! No, a bomb! Or is it an ambulance? Oh, my wracking nerves! It's only Doug Nelson sailing the hillsides on his cycle w/the siren screaming away & pass me an aspirin, please, to soothe my goosepimples promptly.

NATURE BOYS, Oh Joy! A weak smile, mothers, when you meet up w/Mike Winfree, Ricky Hale & Johnny Davidson who, as our Woodsmen of the Week, know every nook & cranny around here. (They once turned up a dead body.) Anyhow, we are happy to report that this week they killed a two and-a-half foot rattler w/a bow & arrow. They shot a dove to cook for dinner, played w/two baby deer & then decided to call it a day & trudged homeward to feed Mike's pet squirrel. Henceforth, boys, please call at our back deck, NOT the kitchen door! & to think I used to be afraid of a Daddy-Long-Legs!

MUSIC HATH CHARMS for the Housewives enrolled in Arline Holmgren's Tuesday Jazz-piano classes. (Beg., Int., & Adv.) For being Good Girls & practicing their lessons, they were rewarded w/guest piano sessions by Cape Cod's Art McCue & the Claremont's Wilbur Baranco. Knight Will Be Moraga Schools Superintendent

The Moraga School District has announced the appointment of William H. Knight of Lafayette as its new superintendent effective July 1.

Knight is the principal of the Vallecito School in Lafayette.

He resides at 1006 Windsor Drive, Lafayette, with his wife, Jacqueline, and his children, John and Elizabeth.

ACCORDING to Donald M. Falconer, clerk of the board, the new position of superintendent was created both because of rapid growth and a desire bring the Moraga schools up to the high standards of adjacent school districts.

Knight is an experienced school administrator. Prior to coming to Vallecito he served as superintendent of the Sonoma School District.

In that district he began as a teacher, rising to the rank of principal and later superintendent. During his administration as superintendent a new school was constructed and several additions were made to existing schools.

KNIGHT has recently completed his work for a degree of Doctor of Education at the University of California, Berkeley, other than the thesis.

He has degrees of master and bachelor of arts in education, philosophy and business administration from San Jose State College.

Knight was selected after a lengthy screening process. A committee consisting of Dr. Frank Bradford, director of administrative services, office of the Contra Costa County Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Theodore Reller, school of education, University of California, and John Moiso, assistant superintendent, Mount Diable School District, narrowed 24 applicants to six.

The board, sitting with Dr. Bradford as consultant, interviewed May 20.

THIS SESSION was augmented with two newly elected members who will take office July 1. According to Falconer, the three present members and the two new members all agreed on Knight.

Knight has been very active in community affairs. He was a member and later chairman of the Sonoma Planning Commission.

He has been active in Boy Scout work, the Parent Teachers Association, California Teachers Association, National Education Association, as well as other community organizations.

FALCONER said: "The board is extremely fortunate to secure the services of Knight as superintendent. Personally, intellectually and professionally, he is qualified for this position.

"He has a fine background in teaching, administration, curriculum development and school business. He has made important contributions in his past posts, and we expect great things of him in Moraga."

Work Completed On Two Essential Thoroughfares

Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen announced today that the Board of Supervisors accepted as complete the contract with Gallagher and Burk, Inc., of Walnut Creek for paving a section of Camino Pablo in Moraga and reconstruction of a portion of Moraga Road at Rheem Center. Total cost of the work was $38,500.

Camino Pablo was paved for 850 feet east of Dickenson Drive along the frontage of the new school currently under construction. Grading, drainage and bottom course of base rock for this section was provided by the Moraga School District. The county completed paving of the 40-foot width with 6 inches of base rock and 1½ inches of asphalt concrete.

Moraga Road, which is an essential route in the city-county thoroughfare system, was improved for a length of 0.29 mile running north from Donald Drive at Rheem Center.

The road was widened to provide four 12-foot traffic lanes and two 8-foot parking lanes. Curb, gutter and sidewalk was constructed on both sides of the street by the owners of the abutting property.

Construction of these projects was supervised by the Contra Costa County Public Works Department under the direction of Victor W. Sauer.

INVETERATE listeners of long-hair music, Phyllis and Millard Simon are shown here with their oboe-playing son Kent (he was brought up on Bach and Beethoven) and their daughter Michele, all inspecting the mere skeleton of their new hi-fi stereo set. For her work on Fluoridation, Phyllis recently was awarded an "Ada", the Oscar of the Contra Costa County Dental Association, can slug it out on the sandlot with the best of her scouts or be equally articulate at a League of Women Voters meeting. Millard (Bud) Simon, a past director of Hacienda Homes, is vice president of the very successful Western Envelope Corporation which has had phenomenal growth under his supervision. Eleven-year Orinda residents, the Simons are Sierra Club supporters, partial to pack-trips and camping out and are avid swim and ski enthusiasts.

$9000 in Furs, Jewelry Taken From Orinda Home

A $9000 fur and jewelry burglary in Orinda topped the crime list at the sheriff's Lafayette substation this week.

Mrs. Ernest Moser of 82 Sleepy Hollow Lane, discovered the loss this week, but said the burglary could have taken place anytime in the past two weeks.

She told deputies that she discovered a jewelry box was missing when she went to show a piece to a friend.

The box was in a bedroom dresser drawer, she said.

While looking for the jewelry box she discovered a fur coat had been taken from a hall closet.

DEPUTIES were told that there other jewelry boxes in the same drawer but they had not been disturbed.

Deputies found no evidence of forced entry and there was nothing that happened in the past weeks that aroused the suspicion of the Moser family.

Mrs. Moser told deputies that they always lock the house at night, but on occasion, leave it open during the day when they go out.

Moser is a jewelry wholesaler. He told deputies that they have had no parties lately and that they do not have a maid or any hired help at present.

The fur coat was valued at $2000.

An emerald teardrop necklace and matching earrings worth $1000 and a cultured pearl choker worth $500 were the most expensive pieces of jewelry taken.

TOTAL VALUE of the missing coat and jewelry was set at $9301.

William Goodall, 135 Camino Encanto, Danville, reported the theft of two mink coats, clothing, jewelry and silverware from his home during the past two months.

The retired minister discovered the items were missing this week.

His wife has been an invalid for several years.

He told deputies that the missing items were chosen from other similar items of value in the house.

A mink stole was valued at $800 and a fur mink jacket was valued at $1500 by Goodall.

THERE WERE six other burglaries reported to the Lafayette sub-station during the week.

A service station at 2411 Oak Grove Road, Walnut Creek, reported that a glass window was smashed and $60 worth of motor oil, grease, points, condensers and oil filters taken.

Fred Hatt, operator of the station, discovered the burglary and said he thought it might be the same person or persons who broke a window and took a tire a week ago.

Beatrice Buxton, 166 Harriet Drive, Pleasant Hill, told deputies that someone entered the house and took a purse containing $60 that was on a stand in the kitchen.

The person had apparently entered the house through an unlocked door. The ransacked purse was left in the garage.

Someone boldly entered the home of James E. Possey, 1631 Shirley Drive, Pleasant Hill, last Friday afternoon while Mrs. Possey was picking up her husband and made off with eight stereo records that were on the phonograph.

Sometime last weekend, the Piedmont Lumber Company, Lafayette, was burglarized of two fire extinguishers and $20 worth of hand tools.

THE RESPONSIBLE persons also shot out numerous lights in two of the yard buildings. A sling shot was found on the property by deputies.

A trailer owned by the Salo and Haines, Inc. Contracting Company of Lafayette was broken into and two scale wheels worth $20 taken.

The door of the trailer was forced sometime last Sunday.

A shotgun and 12 shells were taken from the home of James Theobald, 45 Longridge Road, Orinda, Monday.

Theobald was not at home at the time. Someone apparently entered a bedroom window and then took the gun from the clothes closet.

Employment Rep's Will Be at High School

Representatives from the State of California Department of Employment will be available at Acalanes and Miramonte High Schools to take applications and interview students interested in summer employment.

From the Employment Department's experience in the Lafayette and Orinda areas, it would appear that many yard jobs will be available for boys and some baby-sitting for girls.

Applications will be taken at Miramonte High School in the Counselors' office May 31, June 1 and June 2, during the students' noon hour, 11:45 a.m. to 12:20 p.m., and after school, 3:05 to 4 p.m.

Acalanes High School students will be interviewed June 6, 7 and 8, in the Counselors' office during the noon hour, 11:45 a.m. to 12:20 p.m., and after school, 3:05 to 4 p.m.

Teleticketing Is New Marvel

A development of the modern transportation age was brought to Orinda and Walnut Creek this week — "Teleticketing" at the Worden Travel Offices. A part of the magic electronic system of space availability, booking and ticketing can be seen at the two travel offices.

About 8:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. is the best time to see the machines start rolling at 100 words per minute and out roll tickets by the dozens.

Orinda Couple Will Sponsor French Girl

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Slaughter, 337 Camino Sobrante, Orinda, have just undertaken the sponsorship of a little French girl, Dr. Willard W. Beatty, executive vice president of Save the Children Federation, announced today.

Eleven - year - old Anne Allio lives in a tiny village in Brittany, where her father is the local blacksmith. Although one can hardly talk of modern progress in this region where the people still live as they used to a century ago, a few tractors and cars are now used by the farmers.

Also, since the war, more and more young men are abandoning their land and going to work in factories. All this means that there are less and less horses to shoe and ploughs to repair. At present, Anne's father barely makes enough money to support his wife and children.

"ANNE IS typical of thousands of children whose needs are reported to us from our field offices," Dr. Beatty said. "The children thrive on the love and friendship of their sponsors.

The sponsors, on their part, find true enrichment of their lives from this relationship. Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter are making it possible for Anne to receive packages of food, clothing, school supplies, blankets, toweling, soap and some money to buy other things. I sincerely hope that anyone interested in sponsoring a child will communicate with me."

Save the Children Federation, a 30-year-old organization with headquarters in Norwalk, Connecticut, assists needy children throughout the world by means of child sponsorships, family, school and community self-help programs and an annual clothing collection undertaken by America's millions of school children.

An individual, school or other group need contribute only $12.50 a month to sponsor a child overseas or $10 to sponsor an American Indian child.

Williams Named Most Improved Football Player

Arleigh T. Williams Jr. of Orinda has received the most improved player award in football at the University of California, Davis, for the 1960 season.

The coaching staff selected Williams, a senior linebacker, on the basis of his improvement during the year over the previous season.

Arleigh, who is majoring in physical education, attended Diablo Valley College before entering the university at Davis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arleigh Williams Sr. of 9 Corte Sombrita, Orinda.

Conrad Ambler Named to Phi Beta Kappa

Conrad S. Ambler, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ambler Jr. of El Toyonal in Orinda, has been named to membership in Phi Kappa at Stanford.

Ambler is one of 94 seniors honored with membership. Last November, 16 other seniors were named to the honor society, bringing the total number to 110 for this year's graduating class.

The minimum requirement for admission to the Stanford PBK chapter is a 3.37 grade point average out of a possible 4.00, based on records during the previous three years of undergraduate study.

Four-Day Pageant of Arts Will Open Tomorrow

The near-briliance of many artists in our own "backyard" will become apparent for the thousands of persons expected to attend the Sixth Annual Diablo Pageant of Arts, beginning tomorrow in the Walnut Creek city park.

The gates at the city park bridge and the entrance to the Armory on Carmel and City Park Road will open at 10 a.m.

And the Diablo School Classic Ballet will launch the first day's program at 1 p.m. on the outdoor stage.

EVENTS will move quickly throughout the afternoon and evening, and an inspection of the program will reveal sparkling, live entertainment by the best of the ballet and creative dance groups.

The Pageant itself will run for four days, with the Fine Arts Exhibit available to the public from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day at the armory, and the dance and musical arts neatly scheduled for variety and maximum interest.

The outdoor stage and the recreation center are expected to draw big audiences each day.

Admission each day for adults is 50 cents, all day, with the right to return any time during that day and gain admission with the ticket stub.

STUDENTS are admitted for 35 cents each day, and children are free if accompanied by an adult.

The single ticket for the day admits the pleasure-goer to all events and entertainment.

A program highlight will be "Gems from Gilbert and Sullivan," to be offered tomorrow night by the Diablo Light Opera Company, which each year offers its own paid-admission production.

"Pirates of Penzance," "Gondoliers," "The Mikado," "Trial by Jury," and "H.M.S. Pinafore" will each get an effective treatment.

A "MUSICALE" will begin Sunday afternoon at 2, starting with John Philip Dalby, bass-baritone, and Italo Gambino, pianist. Many talented artists will appear.

All this will be held at the Recreation Center.

Finale Sunday will be a chamber music trio at 8 p.m. at the Center.

Monday will be "Ladies' Day" and will include flower arranging and portrait painting, Art in Fashion, and a musical program. (See separate story).

TUESDAY will combine a Memorial Day observance with rich musical presentations during the afternoon.

Magana Baptiste and Troupe will offer "Dance of the East Indies" at the recreation center, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

A "Press Preview" will be held tonight at the armory. Admittance will be by invitation.

The pageant organization includes Mrs. Evadne Wenker, executive director; Mrs. Vee Strickland, coordinator; Tom Proctor, fine arts show; Robert Pelusi, construction engineer; Mrs. Pelusi, office staff.

Joyce Zaharias, box office; Trudy Cunningham, young people's art; Pearl DeCovnick, young people's literary work; Esther Bailes, judging; Jean Hovanitz, social.

School Limits Viewed

Anticipating the opening of the fifth school of the Acalanes High School District on Moraga Road, trustees this week received an outline of attendance boundary lines proposed by school officials.

Robert Callahan, administrative intern, showed tentative boundary lines on a specially prepared map.

The include the present elementary school areas of: (1) Vallecito School in Lafayette, (2) Glorietta School in Orinda, (3) the Lafayette School area south of Powell Drive from the Vallecito School line to the present Del Valle line, and (4) the Moraga Elementary District in the vicinity of Rheem Center and on Bollinger Canyon Road.

CALLAHAN outlined the factors considered in making the proposal—averting the overloading of Acalanes High School and Miramonte High School, maintaining neighborhood groups at the elementary school level, realizing maximum utilization of present facilities, reducing future boundary changes to a minimum, and proximity to the new high school site.

Based on elementary school enrollments, figures were projected five years ahead assuming that present trends in home construction and population growth maintain their present patterns.

Callahan said policies of the District are to review enrollment figures annually and to permit a student to complete his education in the high school he originally enters.

District Superintendent Parsons emphasized that the present proposal is a tentative one, with final action by the board scheduled for next fall when 1961-62 enrollment figures are available.

TWELVE PLANS were studied by school officials. The present proposal will cause fewest disruptions in school and social adjustment for the students concerned, and permit maximum use of present buildings, say officials.

Students who will be in the first entering class are currently attending seventh grade, and will enter the new school in September, 1962.

Elementary school boundaries, rather than intermediate school boundaries, were utilized as large enrollments in the intermediate schools would result in either overcrowding existing high schools or such small enrollments as to restrict the high school program, officials said.

John Muir Hospital May Have 100 More Beds

Recently revised terms of Hill-Burton grants for hospital construction may enable John Muir Memorial Hospital to build initially 150 beds, instead of the originally planned 50 beds.

This would be a $3,700,000 project, announces Dr. Fred M. Hanson, chairman of the hospital board of trustees.

WITH HILL-BURTON aid, it would be possible to build three times as large a hospital for substantially the same cost to the community as for the 50 beds originally planned, he says.

Re-evaluation of hospital shortages, based on reecnt census figures and population trends, advances this area from forty-second to fifth in Hill-Burton priority, it has been learned.

The Hill-Burton Act is established for construction of hospitals in areas of dire need. Federal allotments are matched by state funds, with qualifying institutions receiving outright grants from the federal and state governments in a total amount equivalent to two-thirds of the cost of constructing and equipping the facility.

HOSPITALS receiving these grants operate independently and free of governmental regulation, Dr. Hanson explained, emphasizing that the non-political, nonsectarian, non-profit, community-operated status of the hospital thus is retained, with administration policies determined by the local hospital administrator and board of trustees.

By minimum standards of 2½ hospital beds per 1000 population, this area, even as of last year, was short 231 hospital beds.

In an area of our population, Hill-Burton funds would be allotted only for construction of a new hospital having 150 or more beds, Dr. Hanson says.

AN OUTRIGHT grant of $2,200,000 is available for this area, when matched with $1,500,000 in local financing, part of which already has been secured in the John Muir Memorial Hospital building fund drive.

Obtaining the Hill-Burton grant therefore requires only about $270,000 in additional subscription commitments from local individuals, organizations and industry, plus a million-dollar loan for which arrangements are being made, according to Dr. Hanson.

Trustees presently serving with Dr. Hanson are Edmund S. Barnett, vice chairman; Mrs. Harmon K. Howard, secretary; Howard L. Sehlin, treasurer; Frederick W. Ackerman, M.D.; Ivan Chappell, Marvin A. Epstein, M.D.; Eugene C. Harter, Alfred B. Layton, Mrs. Frank T. Malley, Frank A. Marshall, John A. Nejedly, Harold S. Robinson, M.D.; David Zuckerman and Mrs. Bates.

The Sociables

By MARIE MONAHAN

TEXAS GUINAN'S famous greeting of "Hello Sucker!" would have been out of place at the Orinda Parent's Club Roaring Twenties dance Saturday night, but somehow you expected it at every swish of a fringed chemise!

The Dandies, the flappers, the Butter & Egg Men of that day mingled w/costumed Ziegfield girls & John Held's flappers in Hijacker's Hideaway, Orinda Motors turned Speakeasy for the evening!

IN THE SPIRIT OF 1929 was Charlie Merrell suited out as a staid banker w/tickertape flowing from his hat & a toy pistol fired & pointing to his head . . . There were pencil-sellers, apple-vendors & Donna & Walter Stoy giving away toy paper money to mark the Depression Days which few of those present remember, we'll wager.

We overhead one husband remarking that his wife "looked better in the Twenties than she does in the Sixties"—& he was, of course, referring to her glad-rags get-up . . . & some of the costumes circa 1920 were mere rags held together by the threads of time.

ESPECIALLY attractive vintage dresses w/bugle beads & intricate embroidery were the black & silver number on Jean Buffalow, wife o fthe Parents' Club pres. Tom . . . & the fragile champagne-colored frock on Betty Partell, both dresses belonging to Betty's family. Elizabeth Heschen wore a silk-tailleur from the deLaveaga trunk & Becky Johnson's Alice Blue Gown, fringed & furbelowed, was another authentic eye-catcher! Ditto the long black fringe on Margaret Anderson.

PARENTS are getting younger for there weren't too many who remembered RUTH ETTING but that's who Edie McDowell resembled—in a white chemise, the white fringe in one long silky swoop from shoulder to hemline . . . Billie Carlock brought back memories of Rio Rita, the big stage show of that decade & Lynn Stanaitis looked like the Guinan gal in a red costume she'd shopped for at Salvation Army . . . Her fancy black lace garter sported a C-note, the better to be a Gun Moll of the day to her husband Ed, a strapping fellow who in business suit & broad-brimmed felt was a notorious Gangster w/a Tommy Gun (toy, again!) slung over his shoulder. It didn't seem to hinder his dancing. He didn't miss a dance to the good music that was the beat of Baron Courtney's!

HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN! Ja-Da, Dardanella & Limehouse Blues were interspersed w/the new . . . Colleen Brooks in a white silk dress & a black silk top hat looked like Helen Morgan or a chorine from George White's Scandals . . . ditto Ricky Sulberg w/her blonde beehive hairdo enhanced by a bright red frock (Clara Bow?).

Some fancy footwork for Tom & Hazel Wilcox, he plaid-vested, she in white silk fringe & long fake eyelashes . . . In a crazy straw hat, Buryl Wright looking like Phil Silvers in his salad days . . .

Boola-Boola for Harry Fledderman in his ivy-league ice cream pants & a V-necked tennis sweater . . . Barbara wearing a headache-band w/her delicately beaded dress . . .

MORE HEADACHE Bands for the ladies but no headaches . . . just fun! Joyce Lipovac doing a Charleston in a flurry of red & silver fringe . . . Joe wearing white flannels & a college "block" sweater . . . Carl Dudley & Paul Mouser sporting plaid blazers, Carl adding a banded straw boater, Paul a black derby. Jean Dudley, Mickey Miller doing ticket-taking chores . . . ditto Chrmn. Grace Spitzer who entertained beforehand . . . Melbra Bray's true-blue chemise turned out to be her Best Dress from a few seasons back & Ann Cunningham danced the night away wearing her husband's straw boater-hat.

PAT BORBRIDGE, like a youthful Cornelia Otis Skinner, introducing her very blonde twin sister, Pat Neustadt of Lafayette, who looked regal in a low-waisted lacey frock & flaunted a foot-long cigarette holder. The Borbridges were w/Marijke & Rod Park (she's a stunning Hollander) & the Bill Van Mastrigts (more Dutchmen!) . . . The Van Mastrigt's were a 20's Twosome, he w/his hair parted in the middle & slicked smoothly to the sides.

Out of costume but having fun ogling the others were the Gordon Martins, Shirley Ballard, Doris Giovanetti, the John Harbells, Hugh Reigers . . . The Vern Nelsons dancing . . .

Bobbie Van Sickle floating in an old-fashioned fancy dressing gown trimmed w/maribou feathers . . . Jan & Clair Harding the lucky winners of the Tahoe trip. (Which is kind of funny since Clair's family live in Reno & they're always up that way anyhow!)

By 1:30, the bandsmen's instruments were folding up & so were the guests—raccoon coats, plus-fours, walking canes & all . . .

Taking their cue from the honor guest's given name, Virginia Stafford & Ethel Tyrell co-hostessed a pretty Bon Voyage Tea at the latter's Van Tassel home May 17.

To give their neighbor Violet Muldner a memorable Send-Off, the tea table and decorations were all in shades of violet & lavender tones in handsome floral arrangements expertly done by Delia Noble.

Rosita Boyen no sooner came through the door in a pretty purple dress than she was nominated for pouring duties—to match the exquisite tea table.

THE AFFAIR, in honor of Violet Muldner, who flies to Europe tomorrow w/her husband Hans, was attended by friends and neighbors in the Sleepy Hollow area . . . Guests included Bea Comerford, Virginia McCann, Gladys Hamberg, Natalie Williams, Betty Talbot, Betsy Kilburn, Pat Walker . . . More there hearing the Muldner's plans for their long planned trip (they'll return home by ship) were Ruth Fields, Betty Bergen, Doris Hansen & Vera Hopkins. (We'll bet the Muldners have a few Butterflies today. Violet ones!)

LOMBARDY BRANCH throws their annual cocktail party at the Robert Field's home Saturday, June 10, w/an Ah So, Oriental theme this year.

DAISIES DO TELL: Karen Stafford in a lavender Austrian print, pivoting around the pool . . . Betty Campbell w/her Sue & Pat . . . Bobbie Ann Hamilton w/dghtd. Cindy . . . Pat Valpreda & Gail applauding The Tropicals, Tim, Craig & Andy, who entertained between showings of beachwear, sports & summer clothes. Mildred Gunn & her dghtr. Brenda on their modeling stroll . . . Florence Jones & her Betsy enjoying refreshments in the pretty manicured floral garden . . . Lil Mika, Mims Groennings, Barbara Bedayne & Dorothy Hall among those serving the dessert & coffee.

Go to Church Sunday

Suburban

This Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Suburban Bible Church the Rev. Gray Lambert will deliver the second in a series of three messages on the work of the Holy Spirit.

Last week his message dealt with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and this Sunday he will speak on "The Walk of the Spirit Filled Beliver."

His concluding message June 4 will be "The Goal of the Spirit Filled Believer."

Sunday School classes will be held at 10 for all ages and extended church school will meet at 11 with classes for children through the sixth grade.

Nursery facilities are available and the public is cordially invited to the services of the church, which is currently meeting in the Lafayette Veteran's Building, 3499 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Methodist

"The Church for You Doth Wait," is the sermon topic of the Reverend John Dodson, minister of St. Marks Methodist Church, which meets each Sunday at Miramonte High School, 11 a.m.

Church School is provided at 9:45 a.m. and is under the leadership of Vic Smith, classes for all ages are available.

Of particular interest is the adult class which is studying the book, "The Creative Years," led by Al Peter.

Syd Bynum, president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, announces that the group will meet at the home of Phil Kooreman, 22 Meadows Park Court. For information contact Syd Bynum, DR 6-4226.

Baptist

Rev. Wesley J. Henkelman, deputation secretary for Orient Crusades, will be the guest minister at the First Baptist Church of Orinda-Lafayette at the Sunday morning worship service at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Henkelman has been a pastor, director for an area Youth for Christ, and has done extensive survey work for World Gospel Crusades.

The Sunday evening service, beginning at the new time of 7 o'clock, will be under the ministry of the assistant pastor, Roger Moore.

Other services of the church include a graded Sunday school beginning at 9:45 o'clock, using Gospel Light Press materials under the direction of Ken Bull; the Baptist Youth Fellowship beginning at 6:15 p.m. under the leadership of Doug Saxton; and the midweek Bible study prayer and praise service Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Presbyterian

Dr. Ronald McNuer, director of the campus ministry for the Presbyterian Church, will lead the service of worship of the Moraga Valley Presbyterian Church at the 11 a.m. meeting in the old Moraga School.

Dr. McNuer works with the university pastors on the campuses of University of California, Stanford, San Francisco State, Humboldt State and San Jose State.

The church school, nursery through the junior departments, also meets at the old Moraga School during the 11 o'clock service.

The high school fellowship meets at 10 a.m. at the old Moraga School. William Grafft is the sponsor.

The junior high fellowship meets at 11 a.m. at the home of their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Roberts, 216 Ivy Drive, Orinda.

Episcopal

Trinity Sunday, St. Anselm's Episcopal Church, 682 Michael Lane, will hold Holy Communion at 8 a.m. with the Rev. William Parsons, missioner from Japan, sa celebrant.

The Rev. Clarence Stacy will preach at the 10 a.m. morning prayer service and all parents are invited to visit the church school classrooms at this time.

Registration for children for fall session church school classes may also be made during this visiting Sunday for parents.

There will be no midweek services May 24 to May 31.

At 4 p.m. there will be an Episcopalian Mt. Diablo Presbytery Confirmation service at the church, with the Rt. Rev. Richard Millard, Suffragen Bishop of California, conducting the services.

This is a county-wide confirmation with six or seven Episcopal churches participating.

Christian Science

How individual rights are defended through spiritual perception of God's complete power and wisdom will be brought out at Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Christian Science churches are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1437 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and at the Corner of Grant and Park Streets, Concord.

Keynoting the lesson-sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the Golden Text from Proverbs (21): "There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord."

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include pp. 234, 235.

Congregational

The Reverend Chauncey Blossom will preach the sermon at the worship services in the Orinda Community Church at 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

His topic will be "The Leading of His Spirit."

Special music will include "If With All Your Hearts" by Mendelssohn and "Omnipotence" by Schubert.

Senior Pilgrim Fellowship will have election of officers at its regular meeting at 7 p.m.

Episcopal

Early holy communion will be administered at 7:30 a.m., with morning prayer at 9 and 11 a.m., at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church on Via Las Cruces and St. Stephen's Way in Orinda.

Both adult and children's confirmation classes will receive during an area confirmation service by the Rt. Rev. Richard Millard, suffragan bishop of California, at 4 p.m. at St. Anselm's Episcopal Church in Lafayette.

Election of officers for the senior Episcopal young churchmen will be held Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in Hill Memorial Hall.

Baptist

"The Consequences of Pentecost" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Alan D. Southwell at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Moraga Hills Community Church, located on Moraga Road between Lafayette and Rheem Center.

This Sunday the adult fellowship class will have Dr. Kenneth Hobart sharing his first-hand knowledge of "The Hong Kong Story."

Presbyterian

The Rev. William Carl Thomas will continue a series of sermons on the theme of "Christian Personality" at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, 49 Crest Road, Lafayette.

His topic for Sunday will be "Peace in the Heart of the Storm," delivered at the 8 a.m., 9 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. worship services.

Nursery care only will be provided at 8 a.m. and classes for all children through kindergarten will be held from 9 to 10:45 a.m. and at 11:15 a.m.

Christian

"Why Do the Righteous Suffer?" is the sermon topic of the Reverend Darwin Mann of the Lafayette Christian Church, 3419 Golden Gate Way, as he continues his series of sermons based on questions people ask. Worship services begin at 10 a.m.

Church school classes for all ages begin at 9 a.m. Nursery care is provided during both Sunday School and the church services.

The CYF will have a car wash Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Texaco Station at Sunset Village. The regular Sunday evening meeting May 28 at 6:30 p.m. will be a planning meeting for the summer months.

Lutheran

Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church will celebrate holy communion at both worship services, this coming Sunday, at 8 and 11 a.m.

Rev. Hidy will speak on the subject, "Essential Christianity."

New members will be received at the 11 a.m. service. Sunday school classes begin at 9:30 a.m. with classes for all age groups.

The Luther League will have a picnic at Redwood Regional Park from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. under the sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Carlock, Luther League advisors.

Methodist

"Destination Unknown" will be the sermon topic of the Reverend George E. Berry at the Lafayette Community Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road, this Sunday.

Morning worship services are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Church school classes for all the family are at 9:30 a.m.

The intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship (seventh and eighth graders) meet at 7 p.m. in the Educational Building of the church. The senior Methodist Youth Fellowship (high school) meet at 7 p.m. in the MYF Room of the church. Those interested are cordially invited to attend.

Unitarian

The Reverend Aron S. Gilmartin will present a Memorial Day sermon entitled "With Charity for All" at the Mt. Diablo Unitarian Church Sunday.

Adult services are held at the American Red Cross Building, 2121 Ygnacio Valley Road, Walnut Creek, at 9 and 11 a.m.; Sunday school and infant care at the Highland Building, 2363 Boulevard Circle, and pre-schoolers at the Pied Piper, 1397 Boulevard Way, at 9 and 11 a.m. High schoolers meet at the Highland Building Sunday at 7 p.m.

Moraga Parents Club Schedules Annual Fun Day

Fun Day, sponsored by the Moraga Parents Club will be held at the Rheem Estate June 6 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A box luncheon will be served with southern fried chicken, cole slaw, potato chips, pastry and coffee.

The swimming pool will be available for the athletically-inclined, also bridge for those who are not.

There will be a small fashion show by Moraga Casuals and professional hula dancers.

Baby-sitting will be available in the old school at 50 cents per child per day, $1 minimum. Make reservations for baby-sitting with Donna Preece, DR 6-8882. Get your tickets for this affair from your neighborhood representative or call Madge Caldwell, DR 6-4394 or Faye Parker, DR 6-5036.

Fairview Battles to Tie

Bill Main knocked in the Falcons' lone run April 25 as Fairview came from behind and battled the Stanley Spartans to a 1 to 1 tie.

The diamond contest seeing the two teams clash on the Spartan home ground, developed into a pitching duel between Bob McLeod of Falconville and Mike Morrison of Spartanville.

Over the five innings of play, McLeod struck out 12 while giving up one hit and an unearned run. Morrison struck out five batters while allowing only two walks and four hits.

THE FALCONS managed to score in the fourth inning as Bruce Black grounded sharply to the Spartan third sacker who threw the ball away.

When the dust cleared, Black was perched on second and Morrison was in trouble. Scott Smith flied to centerfield for the first out of the inning and after Howard Carmona walked, Bill Main grounded a sizzler through the hole in rightfield to score Black and knot the game up at 1 to 1.

Light Opera Group Here

The Diablo Pageant of Arts will feature the Diablo Light Opera Company, presenting "Gems from Gilbert and Sullivan" in the recreation center tomorrow night.

The program will include selections from the following operettas: "Pirates of Penzance", "The Mikado", "Trial by Jury" and "H.M.S. Pinafore".

James Schwartz, a native Californian and graduate of San Jose State College, is the director.

While at San Jose State he was first chair clarinetist, participating in the San Jose State College Symphony and the college woodwind ensemble.

He has been with the San Jose Symphony, and has been director of the choir at Fairfield Air Force Base. He joined the Las Lomas High School faculty in 1954, and is currently working on his master's thesis in music.

Virginia Blair Menges, a native of Chicago, is drama director.

Power Squadron Backs Newcomers

The Diablo Power Squadron is sponsoring the new Carquinez Power Squadron, according to Squadron Commander Del Procter.

The new squadron will be for power boat owners residing in West Contra Costa and Solano Counties.

Coll Talks Industry... And Makes Sense, too

Supervisor Thomas J. Coll has suggested that the county establish an official agency to seek industry for Contra Costa County.

Industry is extremely important, of course, because it provides a healthy tax base. The largest part of the county's income is derived from taxes and these taxes come from essentially only two sources—the private homeowner and industry.

The more of the burden that is borne by industry, the easier it is for the homeowner. Obviously, then, the more industry we can attract the better off we will all be.

COLL POINTED out that residents here pay the fourth highest tax rate in the state and that industry pays about half the real property taxes in the county.

The interesting part of this proposal is what is not said. Coll knows— as do many other people—that an organization is already functioning which is supposed to be dedicated to bringing industry into the county.

And that organization is the Contra Costa County Development Association. By implication, then, the supervisors are saying what so many people already know . . . that the development association is not doing a good job.

But it is costing us money.

DURING THE past fiscal year the county subsidized the development association to the tune of $69,812. Also, it is known that the development association has, in the past, spent many dollars campaigning for incumbent county officials.

We think Coll's suggestion has merit, and some sort of action on this problem is long overdue.

He suggests a starting budget of $25,000 for the new agency would be a good starting figure. However, it seems apparent that this sum will not be sufficient to do more than hire one top-flight executive and a secretary.

COULD THERE BE another answer? Either a complete new organization as suggested by Coll, but with a stronger budget to back it up, or else possibly a complete reorganization of the present development association, including a new staff and new policies.

Certainly action is long overdue, and it is a good thing that attention is being called to this vital portion of our county business.

WE ALSO FEEL that it is not just sufficient for the supervisors to be aware of the problem. They will have to take action, and the sooner the better.

Because the way the situation is now, we are not only wasting money, we are not bringing in nearly as much industry as we could, and that is costing each of us money every time the tax bill rolls around.

Over Coffee, Perhaps?

A recent Western College Association accreditation report of the Contra Costa Junior College District pointed up two interesting areas of conflict.

One is the current college policy of "pay as you go" which has saved the taxpayers $1,200,000 in interest which bonds would have cost, according to Dr. Drummond McCunn, superintendent.

The other viewpoint is voiced by Robert Martincich, president of the Diablo Valley Faculty Association, who maintains that there is a hidden cost in the pay-as-you-go program because many of the students can't get the classes they want and need because of a shortage of both classes they desire and a shortage of both classrooms and teachers.

THE ACCREDITATION report also noted a second major area of controversy —the relationship between the staff of the college and the central administration.

We think that both points are well taken and would like to suggest that the faculty officials and the board should actually sit down together and talk things over.

It's the only story of communications. If everybody knows what is going on, it might turn out that they are closer to agreement than they think.

WE WOULD suggest that the faculty leaders and administration actually get together over a cup of coffe and iron out their differences.

We can remember when the difficulties appeared to be more serious than they apparently are now. It looks as if the air is being cleared a bit.

Certainly discussing the different viewpoints is a step in the right direction. But, obviously, more needs to be done.

We should remember that the important thing is the education of the youngsters who are attending the college . . . not the feelings of the adults involved.

IF THE FACULTY and the administration continue with hteir differences of opinion, only the youngsters will suffer.

So, now is the time to straighten it out. And coffee isn't that expensive.

The Staff Corner

Don't Call them Cabins!

By DICK OSBORN

My first mistake was to call it a cabin. I was promptly straightened out. "These aren't cabins — they're second homes in the mountains."

Sure, I thought to myself . . . now lead me to the cabins, buddy, and let's get this over with.

Before we go any further, I should explain that over the weekend my wife and I were guests of Harry Hoefler, developer of Mi-Wuk (pronounced Me-Wook) Village, Inc., which is located between Twain Harte and Longbarn.

And it was quite an experience.

THE WEATHER, they assured me over the phone before we left, was absolutely great at Mi-Wuk. It was . . . it was so foggy we couldn't see the golf course 50 feet away.

But this didn't phase publicist Art Blum. He blandly explained that previously he had brought a group of people up to see how beautiful Mi-Wuk was in the winter time and the weather had turned out a beautiful 85 degree day, complete with sunshine and no snow for that trip.

In the course of our various conversations (and Mr. Hoefler's bonded best) it developed that there are several people from right here who have cab . . (oops! second homes) in Mi-Wuk. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Burl Brubaker of Walnut Creek, John Emerson of Danville, Frank Kuhlken of Walnut Creek and Robert Taylor of Orinda.

IN SOME CASES these are just lots and the cab . . . (oops—second homes) aren't there yet, but we're represented!

Well, to get back to the story. The first cab . . (oops, second home) we toured turned out to have built-in television in a beautiful massive rock fireplace wall. It also had built-in everything in the kitchen. The furniture I won't even mention. Believe me, I didn't touch it though. Couldn't afford to.

This, it turned out, was just "upstairs" though. We went downstairs and found the entire house duplicated . . . complete with kitchen and TV.

I'll admit, it was a bit missed up down there with a ping pong table and a dart board . . . but it was still bigger than my whole house.

And that's what I was calling a (here's that word again) cabin.

THE WHOLE GROUP of us adjourned to the Longbarn Lodge for dinner, and I found that our charming hostess there was the daughter of a friend of ours in Walnut Creek.

Either it's a small world, or we're being spied upon.

Seriously, though, it was a wonderful weekend and I found that the "mountain people" are really an extremely friendly bunch.

It's a funny thing. They look, on the outside, like the same people you meet at sea level.

But they aren't. They just keep smiling and laughing . . . and doing nice things for you.

If Mi-Wuk and 4700 feet can do that for you, I'd recommend that Mr. K from Russia and a certain Castro and a few others move up there.

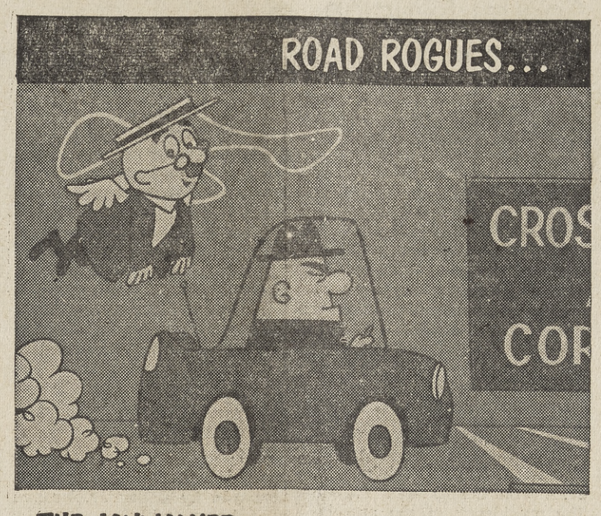
THAT'S IF THEY'D let them in, of course.

And oh yes. I must admit that the weather turned beautiful and sunny just in time for us to drive home. And once the fog lifted and we could look around, you know what we found out?

The place was just as good looking as they had described it.

Just do one thing if you go up there. Don't ask to see the cabins.

ROAD ROGUES...



THE JAYWALKER . . . Sometimes, when she's in a fond mood, Mr. Muffet's wife calls him "angel." He is, too—a real one. Mr. Muffet, like many careless pedestrians, crossed the street in the middle of the block, and, what's more, he was reading the paper at the same time. The driver of the car that hit him really couldn't be blamed too much. The AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety urges you to cross the street only at corners and remain alert at all times.

How About Movies for All the Good Guys?

By MARIE MONAHAN

DEAR MR. MOVIEMAKER:

You'll never get rich on me!

I haven't seen three movies in a year & if the shutdown of the show-houses is any indication, there must be plenty of others who feel as I do.

OF ALL the Oscar-nominated movies, only one had been seen by our family.

And we almost DIDN'T see that one, thanks to your misleading advertising.

What poor misguided movie press agent directed your advertisements for "The Sundowners?"

Not once did the ad mention that here was an especially fine film spilling over with warmth & compassion as well as good action, plot & choice scenic shots.

WHAT the suggestive ad DID infer was that the picture theme was hardly food for family night at the flickerhouse.

Fortunately, a reliable family magazine recommended it & we took the gang to see it for a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

ON THE OTHER HAND, movies that the public is led to believe are FOR family consumption frequently turn out to be so distasteful that many of us bow out of the aisles in the middle of the film in disgust.

A WILD & WOOLY Western without a long-running rape scene is a rarity.

A simple, laughable comedy is suddenly spoiled by SEX with a capital S.

HOLLYWOOD BE THY NAME, you can't even be trusted with the Bible these days!

Do you honestly believe a Biblical story wouldn't survive box office without several suggestive & sensational shots not seen on the screen for more than mere seconds?

Those scenes cost you money. In more ways than one.

The ticket buyers!

You'll never get rich on them, Sirs. They are the masses. They are the fairly nice normal people in the world who wonder what has happened to Hollywood.

YOU USED TO produce pictures such as dreams are made of.

What I mean, Mr. Movieman, is that most of those fairly nice normal people (& they still outnumber the un-nice abnormal ones!) think of the movies as a Dream World, a place to escape to—or into—

The man with the mortgage, the tired mother, the young girl with her first boy friend, the older couple, all of them go to the cinema to live their dreams, to forget their taxes, to get a lift.

Has a good roaring belly-laugh or a good cry gone out of style with the celluloid world?

WE CAN'T afford to spend a buck & take on MORE troubles, Sirs. Not the nightmarish pap you've been throwing at us. We like to come home from the theater feeling Good. Not SICK!

Yes, we are getting choosy about our movies.

We are sick of your sick films about sick people. We are through doling out a dollar to be disappointed . . . or nauseated!

WHEN YOU CAN make us laugh or cry again, when you can make us forget taxes & high cost of living, when you can give us back the Stuff Our Dreams Are Made Of, then Sirs, you just MIGHT get rich again!

MOTORBOATS?

Dear Editor:

The San Pablo reservoir and Lafayette reservoir are indeed potential recreational assets for this community.

We would, however, question the value of these recreational areas if they become local competition for Lake Berryessa.

Obviously, it is easier to tow an outboard motorboat from San Francisco to Lafayette than from San Francisco to Lake Berryessa.

We are sure, that those of us who enjoy peace and quiet while picnicking, or safety while fishing, would soon find the proposed reservoir recreational areas a nuisance facility serving primarily as a noisy speedboat drag strip only 30 minutes from the Peninsula.

The point is this: There are hundreds of square miles in San Francisco Bay for motorboats. The bay is not, however, a desirable place to teach a child to sail.

If boating on the reservoirs was restricted to sailboats, rowboats and rowing shells, our children could learn to fish, sail and row in comparative safety without being exposed to twin 50-horsepower Mercury outboards and their frustrated hot-rod drivers.

Why should our children be encouraged to sail or row when outboard motorboats are so much faster?

Because sailing and rowing are experiences in understanding nature rather than understanding sparkplugs and gasoline. Perhaps it is for this reason that sailing and rowing are Olympic sports whereas motorboat racing is not.

True, the sailing and rowing crowd might buy fewer hotdogs and less beer from local businessmen.

But, most fisherman and boatmen will agree that the true recreational value of the reservoirs to our community will be realized only if they are kept free of motorboats and the juvenile attitudes that so often accompany their operation.

SHERIFF'S NEEDS

Dear Editor:

It was with great interest that I read the editorial article "Does He Need More Men?" printed in The Sun, Second Section, Friday, May 12.

The article was well written and poses a question to the public that is also a tough problem for me as an administrator to completely solve.

I am especially referring to the following excerpt:

"But, on the other side of the fence, we must remember that our suburban population is increasing all the time. Consequently, with more people in our unincorporated areas, there is a higher crime rate.

"And, with an increasing population, the civil load on the Sheriff's Office increases."

THE INCREASING population in this county, as in many other areas, does bring many problems. Contra Costa County, unlike some neighboring counties, is still faced with a vast unincorporated population that requires constant attention from law enforcement. Many question the advisability of increasing the department to keep pace with the need as they wonder what we will do with the surplus of manpower if incorporation should spread throughout the county.

Many counties in other states, and notably Los Angeles County in California, have already faced such a situation.

A Sheriff's Department progresses with incorporation in that the need to extend police protection is lessened but the necessity to provide other services is increased for those areas. A primary duty that the sheriff, by law, must perform is to maintain the County Jail system.

IF CONTRA Costa County were incorporated from boundary to boundary, our jail system would be vast indeed; in fact, would probably call for two or more times the number of personnel than we presently have in our entire department.

As you have pointed out, civil work will increase and will become a major service extended by the sheriff. Transportation duties that the sheriff must perform will become a major problem requiring many deputies; and last but not least, for each department added to the Superior Court, it is necessary that a deputy be assigned as bailiff (Los Angeles Superior Court has 112 or more departments requiring more deputies as bailiffs and relief bailiffs than Contra Costa County's entire force.)

I AM writing this letter so that you may know we are constantly thinking about this problem and striving to give the best possible service at the most economic cost to the county; but not drawing the economy line so tight that the citizen will pay the high cost that prevails in any area where criminality is unchecked because of too few law enforcement officers.

WALTER F. YOUNG, Sheriff

EL TOYONAL

Dear Editor:

As another resident of the area of El Toyonal Road, I want to join Mrs. Celia Luthy and endorse each and everyone of her statements regarding the work which has been done at the Canon Drive junction.

The El Toyonal Road situation is an insult to our community and certainly a poor reflection on our public officials who allow such roads to exist.

El Toyonal is being used more and more as an auxiliary road whenever there is a tieup in the tunnel or on the freeway. This presents a serious problem because the people using El Toyonal on these occasions are not familiar with the road's hazards as we residents are, i.e., the narrow road, blind curves and poor banking.

We are no longer the sleepy little community we used to be, willing to accept just any small favor the county highway department chooses to extend to us. We are asking for a proper road; one which is as safe as is possible to construct. We must have school buses, and, at present, it is impossible in many areas to meet a bus on the road without one vehicle or the other backing up.

Must we have a tragic accident because of the negligence of the people in charge in providing and maintaining our county roads? It is time that this situation is really attended to and not glossed over as has been done in the past and appears to be being done at present.

MRS. ADRIENNE BROWN

Under The Sun

The Sun's New Hawaiian Editor Offers Comments

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

(Sun Associate Publisher Eleanor Silverman is currently in Hawaii with the Sun Suburbia Sea Party. The following impressions of the tour are forthwith presented for your edification by The Sun's Hawaii correspondent.)

"Tomorrow's our last day aboard ship," has become a forbidden conversation on the Matsonia bound for Hawaii with the Sun's Sea Party.

People who wondered what was so great about sea travel are now dreading the finality of the landing Sunday morning in Honolulu.

Of course, our group will all be sailing back on the Lurline a week later, but now that we have formed our fun groups, gotten to know the crew and officers by first names, finally relaxed to the secluded rhythm of sea life—it seems a shame to have it end.

PEOPLE SEEM to be transformed in the short space of four days. Take the group at our table, for example. Only a few nights ago we were stiff and quiet and formal. Now table 6H with Purser John Bender at its head has the reputation of being the laughing group. We are a conglomoration of ages and sexes and walks of life; and yet we are now planning a reunion in San Francisco, including, of course, our darling waitress, Judy.

When it comes to warmth and hospitality—you just can't beat this Matson shipboard luxury life.

Still Time for That Old Shredded Wheat

Just the night before we sailed, I said to HeTrm, Well, this is my last midnight Shredded Wheat snack for a while."

I COULDN'T HAVE been more mistaken. Starting with the first night at sea, I had established a regular shredded wheat and milk 1 a.m. rendezvous with the band and photographers in the dining room. Some take Corn Flakes, some take Rice Crispies, some are even Cheerios men—but to each his own.

You really can't get the feel of the ship if you stay in the glamorous, elegantly decorated, lounges, dining rooms and ball rooms.

You have to go up on the bridge—see the radar equipment, put your hands on the steering wheel; stand below the smokestack with the big M—a smokestack that you have seen for years from a distance on the way to San Francisco. You have to go down into the engine room with its 110 degree climate and gaze on the giant water distillers, the inferno of flames which heat the great steam engines, the long rods which turn the propellors pushing the ship onward, and the multitude of equipment to make ice, electricity, fresh water, air conditioning.

Then to the bow with its mast, its hole, its crow's nest. Only then do you realize the thrill of life at sea with the traditions of generations.

BY THE TIME the fourth day has rolled along you no longer bother yourself with good intentions to write letters, get some reading or knitting done.

You Get Lots of Reading Done, Too

"Oh, I do a lot of reading," one passenger commented, "but it is the same paragraph which I keep starting over and over."

Officers' uniforms start out with the elegant black with gold braid. You're impressed enough with this, and the next night they are even more glamorous with satin lapel formal attire and tux shirts not to mention the gold braid. The next night you read, "Officers formal attire," so you expect more of the same.

BUT INSTEAD you are greeted by a shipload of gracious officers in white uniforms with gold braid. As if that wasn't enough, you awaken Sunday morning, only to find the officers in white starched high collared sumer formal uniforms. The officers call them "chokers," but as far as I' mconcerned they are not suffering in vain. They are all handsome—or so it seems, what with the uniforms and balmy sea air.

The room steward is knocking at my door, "Would you please have as many bags as posible packed and ready by 6 p.m.

Maybe the tears which we missed out on on sailing day will overflow tomorrow with the Honolulu arrival—with the famed Royal Hawaiian band playing on the pier, the catamarans sailing near the boat, the beach boys diving for coins, and the strains of Aloha Oe with Diamond Head in sight.

Just in case you have been wondering which of your neighbors are on the Sea Party: There's George Roush, Messrs. and Mesdames Richard Parker, Zach Montgomery, R. W. Finlay, Bill Casey, Lee Danner and Mesdames Virginia Cundiff, Thomas Smith, Lloyd Martinelli, Harold Bloom, Addie Patterson, Olga Riggs and Mr. Claude McCollum.

The Greeting Is Really Something

Watching a small speck in the distance gradually unfold and transform into beautiful, familiar Hawaii, gave the members of the Sun Sea Party aboard the S.S. Matsonia a thrill reminiscent of the days when the ancient Polynesians landed in their canoes.

With dramtic clarity, the rugged shores unfold and then Diamond Head and its traditional landmarks looms before you.

"It's real," you keep telling yourself.

After seeng only birds and fish on the horizon, the first launch with "aloha" waving passengers seems almost out of place.

Immediately the waters are full of greeting catamarans, colorful sailboats, beach boys diving for coins . . . Your ship is in the dock and you are in Hawaii at last.

The Happiness Tour guides greeted us at the Hawaiian Village with delicious rum punch and delightful news that our accommodation had been upgraded to twice the value we had been promised.

BEAUTIFULLY decorated, enormous rooms with private balconies overlooking the surf and pink floating catamarans—awaited the seafaring Sun voyagers.

"This would be great if only this hotel would stop rocking."

After a refreshing dip in the Hilton Hawaiian Village—kaiser made—beach, we finall ygot our land legs back.

By now we are all great and it seems life-long friends on the Sea Party. Wouldn't even be surprised if there were not a romance or two brewing in our midst.

THESE smiling young ladies, all members of the Diana Guild of the Lincoln Child Center, modeled teen fashions at a recent show. The girls, left from right, are Pat Kelly, Joyce Bailey, Kathy Bekedan, Linda Sears and Kathy Baldwin. All attend Miramonte High School in Orinda.

Mills College Annual Reunion Set June 8-11

Luncheons, class parties and commencement will highlight the annual reunion festivities at Mills College June 8 through 11.

Plans to honor the class of 1911, which was the last Seminary Class to graduate from Mills, were completed at a recent meeting of the board of governors of the Mills College Alumnae Association.

Among the board members participating in this planning are the Mesdames Scott Ramsden and John Goldeen, both of Orinda and Mrs. Herbert Von Colditz of Lafayette.

At the annual meeting of the Mills College Alumnae Association which will be held June 10, Mrs. Von Colditz will assume the presidency of the association. Mrs. Ramsden is the chairman of the entire reunion program.

Chicago 20's Return for Cedar Jrs.

"Chicago, Chicago" will set a fringe-swinging, bead-twirling theme for members and guests of Cedar Jr. Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay May 27 at 8 p.m. in Piedmont.

Through the beaded curtains, the Charleston and turkey-trot will hold sway as the oldies are aired by an authentic "Chicago-type "dance band. And, to complete the revival, a rousing flapper revue will be presented. David Cutter of Berkeley and his guitar will accompany songs and dances by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weede of Concord and others.

A midnight buffet supper, prepared by Cedar Jr. Branch members, will be eaten by flickering candlelight on checkered-cloth covered tables.

Assisting the chairman of the Chicago Twenties party is Mrs. Michael Wood of Orinda, chairman of Cedar Jr. Branch, and local Cedar Jr. Branch members Mrs. M. Sherman Eubanks of Lafayette, food; Mrs. Rollo L. Wheeler of Orinda, decorations; and Mrs. William T. Wilkinson of Orinda, music.

Alpha Phi Seniors Gather for Party

May 18, Berkeley alumnae of Alpha Phi gathered at the Orinda home of Mrs. Fred Crawshaw, 2 La Vuelta Road, for their annual May party honoring the graduating seniors of Lambda chapter at the University of California and welcomed them into the graduate ranks.

The 12:30 o'clock pool-side buffet luncheon was followed by a brief business meeting with Mrs. Manford Funston of Orinda, alumnae president, presiding.

Visit Pebble Beach

Spending a few days at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach, are the following residents: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Loebach of Walnut Street, Lafayette and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawler of Diablo.

DV College Thetas Meet

The last meeting of the season for the Diablo Valley Club of Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae will combine business with a swimming party at the home of Mrs. William T. Ayres, 50 Corwin Drive, Alamo, June 15, at 12 noon.

The slate of new officers for the next year will be announced and include Mrs. John R. Vanneman, president; Mrs. Stephen A. Hunter, vice-president; Mrs. Leland S. Scott, Jr., treasurer; and Mrs. Donald Ong, secretary.

Members who are planning to attend are asked to bring a sandwich. Other refreshments will be provided by the co-hostesses: Mrs. Andrew Kirk, VE 7-7129; Mrs. Donald Ong, YE 5-8071; and Mrs. Ronald Wilbur, AT 4-7607.

Club Raises Funds

The Masonic Hall, Lafayette, was the scene of a bridge luncheon May 17 given by the Town and Country Women's Club of Lafayette.

Alamo Mothers Plan for Tea

Officers will be installed at a tea planned by the Alamo mothers Club for June 6 from 1 to 3 p.m.

Mrs. Lawrence U. Hudson will succeed Mrs. Robert Gibble as president; Mrs. George Ensman, vice president; Mrs. Water Kirk, secretary; Mrs. Howard Burk, treasurer.

Mrs. George Barton Jr., program chairman, is presenting an aquacade, "Around the World in 80 Days."

Swallows Will Dance, Dine June 3

Members and guests of the Swallow unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center are looking forward to an evening of food and dancing at their second annual Barn Dance at Silva's Barn in Danville, June 3.

Mrs. Robert Heaton, chairman of the dance, announces that tickets are limited, so make your reservations with Mrs. Ted Barcelon, AT 4-4796, as soon as possible.

Mrs. Philip Chance announces entertainment by Mary McNaughton and Phil Chance and accompanied by Bud Duling.

All proceeds from this fund-raising event will go to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

August Nuptials To Be Held For Betrothed Pair

At a May 13 dinner party at the home of her parents, the engagement of Joan Clare McCarthy to Richard M. Alford was announced.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. McCarthy of Walnut Creek.

The future benedict's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Alford of Concord.

The betrothed couple plans a nuptial ceremony August 12. They will both graduate from the University of San Francisco in June.

Richard graduated from Mt. Diablo High School. At the San Francisco university he is majoring in economics. He has been accepted for graduate studies at American Institute for Foreign Trade in Phoenix, Arizona.

While at USF, he was president of Young Republicans and was a member of: Club Presidents Council, American Economic Association, Marketing Club and International Relations Association.

Joan graduated from Holy Names High School in Oakland. In June she will receive her Bachelor of Science, R.N. and California Public Health certificate.

She affiliated with Gamma Gamma Gamma sorority. She has been a member of the president's honor roll since freshman year.

MISS JOAN Clare McCarthy of Walnut Creek will wed Richard M. Alford of Concord August 12, it was announced recently. Both she and Richard will graduate in June from University of San Francisco.

Club Members Compared to Orchestra

"Federation is like an orchestra. The harmony of working together brings success," Mrs. Arthur Larson, Mt. Diablo District co-ordinator, told members of the Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club during their installation ceremonies Tuesday evening.

With music as a theme, Mrs. Larson, installing officer, compared each office to a section of a musical group.

Mrs. Albert Taylor succeeds Mrs. Edwin Robinson as president of the organization.

Serving with her for the year 1961-62 are Mrs. Robert May, first vice-president; Mrs. John Rousset, second vice-president; Mrs. Ted Wilson, third vice-president; Mrs. James Ninnis, recording secretary; Mrs. Leslie Johnson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Laurence Smith, auditor; Mrs. David Bond, Bond, treasurer; Mrs. George Meikle, parliamentarian; and Mrs. J. F. Bailey and Mrs. Robert Walker, co-ordinators from the Walnut Creek Senior Women's Club.

"Graduation" ceremonies for junior members transferring into the senior women's group were also held during the meeting.

A short resume of each one's activities as junior members was presented by Mrs. Taylor during this portion of the meeting.

Honored were Mrs. Roger Black, Mrs. Donald Tice, Mrs. Robert Wise, Mrs. Leonard Hopkins and Mrs. William McGeehon.

June Wedding For Ann Coggins,

A June 18 wedding is being planned by Miss Ann Coggins and Jack Johnson.

Ann, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coggins of Walnut Creek, is a 1960 graduate of Pleasant Hill High School.

Jack is the son of the Harold Jacksons of Yosemite.

He is from Coulee Dam, Washington and attended Central Washington College of Education. He is presently stationed at the Naval Air Station at Alameda.

Betrothed Pair Plan Nuptials

Twice told during May, the engagement of Sylvia Leone Cockerton and Raymond J. Mansfield Jr., both local residents.

Sylvia is the daughter of the George R Cockertons of Alamo.

She graduated from Acalanes High School and San Jose State College.

Raymond is the son of Mrs. Isabel J. Mansfield of Sausalito and Dr. Raymond J. Mansfield of Portland, Maine.

He graduated from College of the Pacific, now University of the Pacific.

Sylvia and Raymond plan an August wedding.

MRS. JOHN Goldeen, left, and Mrs. Scott Ramsden of Orinda plan a Mills College reunion festivity with Mrs. Herbert Von Colditz, far right, of Lafayette. The reunion is slated for June 8-11.

The Sound of Music

A second annual musicale will be presented June 4 by the Diablo Valley chapter of Hadassah.

The musicale will feature the Diablo Chamber Ensemble at the 8 p.m. performance in the Alamo Women's Club in Alamo.

Performers will be: Stuart Bloom, violinist; Mary McLain, cellist; guest artist Mona White, pianist, and special attraction, Ronald Gibson, pianist.

Ronnie Gibson is 15. He has studied with Mona Wahle for five years. For the past four years he has played major works at the Junior Bach Festival.

When he was nine years old, he played the Mozart D-Major Concerto with the Napa Symphony and at age 12 he played the First Beethoven Piano Concerto with the Young Peoples Symphony.

Since then he has played with them repeatedly. He started to give recitals on KPFA at age nine.

Mrs. Mona Wahle of Berkeley, his teacher, studied at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. She has been a teacher for 22 years. She has given many concerts, given recitals on KPFA as well as for the Noon Concert Series at U.C. Mrs. Wahle was the first pianist with the S.F. Little Symphony.

The program will include trios by Mendelssohn and Beethoven and piano music by Chopin, Rachmaninoff and others.

Tickets available from Madeline Babin, YE 4-3267; Marge Greenstein, AT 3-6540; Ellen Kroff, CL 4-3332; Sally Bloom, VE 7-2105, and Sylvia Saldinger, MU 2-3102.

Refreshments will be served after the performance. Mrs. L. Rosen is chairman of the hospitality committee. The program will benefit Youth Aliyah.

J. L. Biasotti Jr. Takes Vows with Miss McCreery

Exchanging marriage vows before Father Robert Duryea of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Berkeley, were Nedra Jane McCreery and John Louis Biasotti Jr.

The couple were wed at a nuptial mass at 11 a.m. April 15 in St. Mary's Catholic Church.

A reception was held in the Montclair Women's Club following the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Biasotti Jr. is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Whiting of Oakland.

Her husband is the son of the John L. Biasottis of Lafayette.

Nedra was given away in marriage by her godfather, Herman J. Busch. Her maid of honor was her sister, Joan McCreery.

Bridesmaids were Carolyn Miasotti, sister of the groom, and Mrs. James (Jacque Larsen) Bava.

Standing up with the groom was James Bava as best man. Ushering duties were performed by Robert Sanders and Gary Pinnella.

The bride's gown was full length silk organza with reembroidered alencon lace with iridescent sequins and seed pearls and chapel train.

Her pearl crown had an elbow length illusion veil.

She carried a bridal bouquet of stephanotis and white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Therapy Center Opens Terrace

Luncheons served in a Victorian setting will be featured when the 17 units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center open their brand-new Therapy Center Terrace June 5.

The terrace, which is the newest fund-raising project of the therapy center, will be located at 1475 East Newell Avenue (adjacent to the Boadway Shopping Center) in Walnut Creek.

The terrace will serve coffee from 10 a.m. and homemade casserole and salad luncheons from 12 noon to 2 p.m., every day of the week except Sunday.

Facilities for bridge or meetings will be available until 4 p.m. at a nominal charge. Fashion shows and art exhibits will be held often.

Mrs. Melvin Katzer, of Danville, is chairman of the board of directors of the Therapy Center Terrace. She will be assisted by the Mesdames Marvin Kennedy and David Coleman of Orinda, Gerald Clark of Moraga, Donald Johnson, R. A. Spitzack and Robert Andrews of Walnut Creek and E. P. Ward of Lafayette.

The Therapy Center Terrace will welcome parties and club meetings, as well as "shoppers."

For reservations prior to June 5, call Mrs. E. C. Walker at CL 4-3196.

After June 5 reservations may be obtained by calling YE 5-0121.

All proceeds from the Therapy Center Terrace will benefit the rehabilitation program of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

WED IN April at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church in the East Bay were Nedra Jane McCreery and John Louis Biasotti Jr. The groom graduated from Acalanes and St. Mary's College. —Photo by Hal Matson.

Lafayette Woman Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Paul Albright of Lafayette will be hostess to the Mothers Club of Nu chapter, Phi Kappa Tau, June 1.

Among the officers to be installed will be Mrs. R. Holland, president; Mrs. A. Kritscher, vice-president, and Mrs. K. Bone, corresponding secretary, all three of Lafayette.

Delta Gamma Swim, Lunch Here June 5

June 5, the Mt. Diablo Delta Gamma Alumnae Association is having a lunch and swimming party in honor of the graduating seniors at the University of California.

The event will be held at the home of Mrs. A. T. Mackay, president of the group, at 1101 Scots Lane, Walnut Creek, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. John McDougal, who is just retiring as house advisor, and Mrs. Robert J. Gordon.

Any Delta Gamma alums in the area who may wish to attend should call Mrs. John L. Riehl at YE 4-8817.

Mrs. Frank Wootten Named Treasurer

Mrs. Frank Wootten of Orinda has been elected treasurer of Xi Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

She was installed, along with other officers, at a formal dinner at the Galleon in Alameda.

Mrs. F. E. Rossi, Prexy, Takes Chairmanship

Members of Heidi chapter of the Children's Home Society met for their May 9 meeting at the home of Mrs. Kenneth R. Keller in Happy Valley.

Mrs. Frank E. Rossi of Lafayette was elected president of Heidi for the 1961-62 business year.

In addition to serving as the incoming president, Mrs. Rossi has accepted the general chairmanship for Heidi's 13th Annual Fashion Show and Luncheon to be held this year in October at the Castlewood Country Club.

Other officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. R. P. Cornelison, vice-president; Mrs. Andrew Young, recording secretary; Mrs. Ted J. Clark, corresponding secretary and Mrs. L. A. Frank, treasurer.

Other business for the month included plans for Heidi's monthly bridge group which will meet at the home of Mrs. Mervyn Wall in Lafayette and for a workshop meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl Gudnason of Lafayette May 31 for the purpose of making surprise gifts for Heidi's fall party.

WED AT the Montclair Presbyterian Church recently in Oakland were Shirley M. Chalk and Dr. John M. Aitken. Shirley is the daughter of the Oscar Fogelbergs of Walnut Creek.

He Wanted Fame, Money; One Enough?

First man to reproduce his profile on a coin is believed to have been Alexander the Great.

But today's great idea for reproducing plenty of coin is a classified ad in The Sun.

Like to sell something? Fill vacant units? Hire good help? For an ad writer, call YE 4-5000, AT 4-4444 or CL 4-4343.

These folks are among the hundreds who each week try The Sun and get results:

Mrs. E. L. Horton of 207 Pulido, Danville, received 40 phone calls and sold on the first day a bedroom set, with spring and mattress.

Mrs. L. D. Montgomery of 2008 Mallard Drive, Walnut Creek, sold a pressure cooker and aquarium outfit with pump heater.

F. D. Rowland of 1403 Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek, was successful with an ad offering care for semi-invalids or elderly persons.

Sex and Self Is General Semantics Topic

"Sex and the Self-Concept" is the subject for a psychiatric social worker of the San Francisco Public Health Department tonight at 8 at Diablo Valley College.

The talk is sponsored by the Contra Costa Chapter of the International Society for General Semantics.

Marie Angell of Berkeley recently presented a paper on "Psychiatric Aspects of Homosexuality" to the Northern California Public Health Association.

Miss Angell majored in social welfare and has a master's degree; is employed as a psychiatric social worker in the venereal disease clinic in San Francisco.

She is a former president and secretary of the San Francisco Chapter of the International Society for General Semantics.

Miss Angell is working for a sociology degree to integrate psychological, sociological and biological factors in general semantics context.

Nine Scholarship Grants Awarded

Nine faculty members of Acalanes High School will be studying this summer and next year under scholarship grants given by national organizations.

National Science Foundation awards have been received by five teachers which will enable them to pursue advanced study in mathematics and science. Harold Oxsen will attend a summer institute in math at U.C., Santa Barbara and then leave for a year's sabbatical study in math at Boston University.

BURT BARNETT will use his NSF grant to study physiology and bacteriology at Humboldt State College, while George Scott will explore radiation biology at U.C., Berkeley. Frank Baughman and James Thornton have been given grants to be used at the University of Oregon and Santa Clara University, respectively.

Robert Wicks has been chosen as one of two Bay Area science teachers chosen to learn of industrial research procedures at the Richmond laboratories of the California Research Corporation, a subsidiary of Standard Oil Co.

James Garvey has been granted a National Defense Education scholarship to pursue graduate study in German at the University of Washington.

RICHARD MAYES will attend a six-week seminar for high school teachers of journalism at Berkeley under a scholarship granted by the Newspaper Fund, Inc.

Margaret Nicholson will continue her half-time leave of absence to collaborate with Dr. Glenn Seaborg and Dr. Pimentel in the writing of a new high school chemistry textbook.

Recognition of national organizations in the granting of financial awards to such a large proportion of the faculty of one school indicated the caliber of instruction being received by students of Acalanes High School.

Carl R. Moore Jr. Takes Office

Elected at its April meeting, Carl R. Moore, Jr., of Orinda, a certified public accountant, was installed as secretary-treasurer of the East Bay Chapter, California Society of Certified Public Accountants, at the chapter's annual meeting May 17.

Plant Dahlias For Fall Blooms During May

Set out a final planting of dahlias for bloom in fall. Stake them at planting time.

Lawns under trees need more than the normal amount of food since the tree takes so many nutrients from the soil for itself.

Lift daffodils and other spring-blooming bulbs only after the tops have died down. It shouldn't be long now.

Mulch with a two-inch layer of moist peat moss around camellias and the shrubs will weather the summer in much better shape.

Hanging fuchsias potted up now and fed generously will be cascading myriads of bloom by midsummer.

Ted Clark Becomes New President

Ted Clark of Valley View Estates has been elected president of the Acalanes Parents Club for 1961-62.

Groups Can Obtain Pro Football Film

Thrilling plays from outstanding games of the 1960 professional football season in the National League are shown in six new 16mm-sound films now available free to adult community groups in Northern California.

Five of the films, each 30 minutes, give highlights from games played by the Detroit lions, the St. Louis Cardinals, the Chicago Bears, the Los Angles Rams and the San Francisco 49ers.

A sixth movie, running 16 minutes, throws the spotlight on the Dallas Cowboys in action.

The films are being made available by Falstaff Brewing Corporation.

They are distributed in California by Modern Talking Picture Service.

Requests for films should be directed to Modern Talking Picture Service, Dept. 8, 444 Mission Street, San Francisco 5, Cal.

PFC R. H. Locke Takes Honors

Army Pfc. Richard H. Locke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Locke, 3244 Gloria Terrace, Lafayette, recently completed with honors the track vehicle mechanic course at the Seventh Army Training Center in Vilseck, Germany.

Locke entered the Army in November, 1959 and arrived overseas in May, 1960, on this tour of duty.

The 20-year-old soldier was graduated from Pleasant Hill High School in 1959.

Ferns Have A Cooling Effect

There's nary a flowering member of the fern family, but who's to complain? Few plants, however bountiful, have more beauty to offer. Ferns lend enchantment to the garden. Their delicate green fronds are a year-round breath of spring, a fountain of refreshment from which you can never drink your fill.

Biggest and boldest of the family—and why not start with them—are the tree ferns, at least two of which are offered by most members of the California Association of Nurserymen.

There are few more striking specimen plants for an east or north entrance patio. Or you can try them in a tub for use on the open porch or terrace, or again, as an eye-catching accent in a garden background.

THE TWO most common tree ferns in California are the Australian tree fern and the Tasmanian tree fern. Both are tropical and exotic, with the latter having more to recommend it, possibly, because of its more compact size.

Toughest of them all is the sword fern, an erect, fast-spreading member of the fern family that tolerates poor soil and drought. These won't object, however, to the same treatment all ferns relish, and that is shade or semi-shade, plenty of leaf mold in the soil and constant moisture with good drainage. Dryness is not necessarily fatal, but a dried out fern is a long time in recovering, if it ever does.

Campfire Plans Grand Council Fire Sunday

The annual Grand Council Fire for the Camp Fire Girls of District III will be held Sunday, 3:30 p.m. at the Pleasant Hill High School gym.

The Grand Council Fire program acknowledges the Camp Fire Girls for honors and ranks that they have earned during the year. Approximately 200 Camp Fire Girls with their leaders will take part in the program.

"Climbing Camp Fire's Golden Mountain" will be the theme of the program. The Nina-Cha-Kiya Horizon Girls will salute each rank in a progressive torch lighting ceremony. The "welcome" will be presented by Eugene Palmer, District III chairman for the Camp Fire Girls.

Mrs. Kenneth Bradshaw, guardian of the graduating eighth grade Tawasi-Kanda Camp Fire group, will act as mistress of ceremonies.

At this occasion several girls will receive the Torch Bearers Rank, which is the highest of the four ranks in Camp Fire.

Alhambra Wraps Up Foothill Title

Acalanes, Las Lomas Tie For 2nd with 10-5 Marks

The Alhambra Bulldogs put the clincher on the Foothill League baseball title last Thursday when they posted their twelfth win of the year, 6-4, over San Ramon.

Acalanes upended Las Lomas, 5-2, and Miramonte whipped Piedmont, 7-1, in other games.

It was Alhambra's first year in the Foothill League.

Las Lomas was the only team to defeat Alhambra over the 15 game league schedule as the Bulldogs finished with a 13-2 mark.

FINAL STANDINGS	W.	L
Alhambra	13	2
Acalanes	10	5
Las Lomas	10	5
Miramonte	6	9
San Ramon	5	10
Piedmont	1	14

In the final games of the season Tuesday, Alhambra chalked up win No. 13 by defeating Miramonte, 5-2.

Acalanes, the early season leader, finished in a tie for second place by defeating San Ramon, 6-0, behind Denny Toll's three hit pitching.

In the other final game Las Lomas racked lowly Piedmont, 12-1, banging out 14 hits while clearing the bench.

THE DONS' win over the Knights last Thursday enabled the Lafayette team to gain the tie for second place.

Both teams finished with 10-5 records. Acalanes lost three games to Alhambra, one to Las Lomas and one to Miramonte.

Alhambra jumped to an early lead over Miramonte Tuesday with two runs in the first inning. The Bulldogs added their final three in the fourth then held off the Matadors who scored twice in the sixth inning.

Bud Nelson hurled a three hitter for the Bulldogs. Bob Welch, Bill Kent and Jim Tonascia gave up only four hits for Miramonte.

Besides his fine three-hit pitching, Toll collected three of Acalanes' six hits against San Ramon.

ACALANES scored five times in the first inning. The Dons' final run came on a home run by Bob Gillham in the second.

K. C. Evans went all the way for San Ramon.

Las Lomas scored a single run in the first against Piedmont, added another in the second, three in the third and then exploded for seven more in the sixth inning.

Piedmont's lone tally came in the final inning.

Bob Kreider, Bill Remy and Rich Nye shared the pitching chores for the Knights.

600 Entered in AAU Swim Meet At Las Lomas

The Diablo Invitational Swim Meet gets under way at the Las Lomas High School pool tomorrow at 9 a.m. The meet will continue on Sunday beginning at 9 a.m., also.

More than 600 swimmers have already registered for the meet, which features 64 different races.

The AAU-sanctioned meet is being sponsored by the Berkeley Y Swim Club.

Admission to the meet is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Among the 600 entrants are many Olympic swimmers and AAU national champions.

Points and places will be awarded according to the times recorded in heat races.

Trophies will go to the top boy and girl swimmers and the club that scores the most points.

Mrs. Ward Wins Diablo Tourney

Mrs. R. L. Ward defeated Mrs. R. B. Conner 1-up in the championship flight of the Diablo Country Club Women's Handicap Tournament.

In the Diablo Flight it was Mrs. F. Knight defeating Mrs. B. A. Robinson, 1-up.

Mrs. E. A. Ballman downed Mrs. J. L. Dawson, 2-up, in the first flight while Mrs. E. Cannon bested Mrs. R. J. Allen, 1-up.

Section Track Meet at UC Tomorrow Afternoon

The track fans have another big day tomorrow as the cream of the crop takes part in the North Coast Section Meet at Berkeley tomorrow.

The meet will be held on Edwards Field at the University of California. Field events get under way at 1 p.m.

The top place varsity winners will qualify for the State Meet to be held at Los Angeles City College next Saturday.

Tomorrow's meet marks the end of the road for the Bees.

The North Coast Section Division One Track Meet held at Antioch last Friday found Richmond's Oilers walking off with top honors as they scored 32 points.

El Cerrito was second with 30 points and Pittsburg third with 28⅔.

Berkeley won the Bee meet with 33 points.

Piedmont's top sprinter, Bill Hefter, failed to qualify for tomorrow's meet.

A pulled muscle caused him to finish sixth in the 100 and he was unable to compete in the 220.

Las Lomas failed to place anyone for the big event tomorrow.

The team didn't know where the meet was being held so they failed to show up.

One of the meet's highlights was a 4:24.8 mile by Morgan Groth of Alhambra.

Local Place Winners

High hurdles—Cliff Essingler (PH), third.

Shotput—Dave Dornsife (AC), third.

880—Mike Hoover (Pied.), second.

100—Bill Caldwell (Mira.), second, and Chris Rinne (AC), fourth.

440—Dick Gentry (PH), first, 50.2, and Steve Hogan (Pied.), third.

Discus — Russ Young (MD), fifth.

220—Chris Rinne (AC), second.

Mile — Morgan Groth (Alh.), first, 4:24.8; Robert Cooper (CV), second; Dave Deubner (Mira.), third.

High jump — Cliff Esslinger (PH) and Barry Rillett (Pied.) in five-way tie for second.

Pole vault — Charles Berger (Pied.), two-way tie for fourth.

Relay — Acalanes third and Pleasant Hill fifth.

Summer Baseball Camp Taking Applications

A summer baseball camp for youngsters 8 to 18 is accepting applications of youngsters from the local area at the present time.

Youngsters may sign up for one, two or three-week sessions at either the Covina or Costa Mesa camp.

The camp for boys ages 8 to 12 is located in Covina.

The program there is geared for boys in this age group. No more than 12 boys will be in any one group to insure each boy individual attention.

The camp for boys ages 13-18 is adjacent to the Southern California College campus on the outskirts of Costa Mesa.

The training program there is more advanced to prepare boys for a possible career in organized baseball.

The summer camp is under the direction of Wally Moon, a former major league outfielder and now a coach with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Head coach will be Dick Adams, former Philadelphia Athletics player. He will be assisted by other major league coaches.

Moon will make nine personal appearances during the summer with major league players who will conduct clinics at the two camps.

The camp will open June 25.

Further information about the camp can be obtained by writing to Wally Moon, P.O. Box 303, Costa Mesa, California.

Mt. Diablo, CV End Season With 10-2 Records

The Contra Costa Division of the Diablo Valley Athletic Leauge wrapped up the 1961 baseball season last Thursday with the Mt. Diablo Red Devils and the Clayton Valley Eagles winding up in a tie for the top spot.

Mt. Diablo won its final game with a 4-1 win over Pleasant Hill. The Devils outhit the Rams, 11-2.

FINAL STANDINGS	W	L
Mt. Diablo	10	2
Clayton Valley	10	2
Pittsburg	7	5
Pacifica	5	7
Pleasant Hill	5	7
Antioch	4	8
College Park	1	11

It was a close ball game all the way, with Pleasant Hill holding a 1-0 lead, scoring in the first frame.

Mt. Diablo tied the game in the fourth, added a single run in the sixth and clinched the win with a pair in the final seventh.

Top hitters for the winners were Marty Piscovich with a home run and a triple and Dennis Enoch, who rapped out a pair of three-base hits.

Al Oxley collected the Rams' only two safe blows off Diablo's Bob Armstrong.

The Rams finished with a 5-7 record.

Clayton Valley kept pace as they came from behind to defeat Antioch, 7-4.

Antioch scored four runs in the second to take an early lead. Clayton Valley outhit Antioch 7-3.

It was a loosely played ball game, as Clayton Valley had eight errors, while Antioch wasn't far behind with six.

Pittsburg registered a 9-3 win over Pacifica Thursday while outhitting them 9-5. Five errors hurt Pacifica while Pitt had but one miscue.

PH Loses First NBC Game, 9-8

Pleasant Hill lost its first game in the Abe Rose National Baseball Congress, 9-8, to the Melody Ramblers Sunday at the Diablo Valley College field.

Pleasant Hill now has a 3-1 record in league play. The Richmond Elks are leading the loop with a 5-0 mark.

Sunday, Pleasant Hill meets Acme Carpet at El Cerrito at 2 p.m. Acme has a 2-2 league record.

Starting June 4, both the Diablo Valley College field and Walnut Creek's Civic Field will be used for NBC tournament play. All league play in the NBC is suspended for the month.

Four teams will play at each of the fields in a double elimination over four consecutive Sundays. The winner goes directly to the NBC state finals at Albert Field in San Rafael during July.

Crockett, San Francisco Longshoremen, Pleasant Hill and the Mill Valley Merchants will play the opening games at DVC.

At Walnut Creek's Civic Field it will be Jackson-Goldie Ford, 88c Stores, Walnut Creek Merchants and the San Francisco Misracks playing in the opening games.

Second baseman Bill Stone paced the Pleasant Hill attack last Sunday with a pair of doubles and a single and drove in three runs in a losing cause.

By LARRY JACKSON

Fishing!!! Wa'ssat? For the past week, the mornings have been bright and ideal for fishing conditions, but by noon up comes the wind and ruins the sport.

Boats at Dowrelio's—all prettied up for the addicts—hit the fishing banks early with fair luck, but on most occasions they had to stay dockside in the afternoons as the winds made the sport too hazardous. Some fish were taken in the 6-8 pound class, but not too many.

Top fish of the week went to young 11-year-old Edward Shaw on Saturday in the thunderstorm. It registered 17½ pounds for the wet but happy youngster. Eddie and his dad fished the wharf with only the one fish in the bag. We talked with the Eff N' Gee boys of the Nautilus and found the anchovy bait has moved out or are in hiding during the foul weather.

AT WHITE'S Fishing Resort the report was much the same with low tides—poor weather and lack of bullhead bait being the main reasons. Afternoon winds prevented the boats from getting out and Dal Hering at the dock kept most of the sports off the river as it proved too dangerous.

One hardy—or foolhardy—soul insisted on going out late and had to be hauled in at 9 p.m. with a conked out motor and an almost swamped boat. In spite of the weather the crowds picked up, but didn't stay long as it was just too rough. Some stripers were taken in the same 6-8 pound bracket with the top fish of the week going to Andy Miilu with a 10½ pounder.

At McAvoy's Yacht Harbor it was dull all week. The storm of Saturday ruined the road out to the shore area and prevented entry for the balance of the week. A few boats went out each day, but the wind coming up across the flats drove them all in early with hardly a fish taken. Sunday a goodly crowd of the boating gang went up river—Pirates Cove, just east of Three Mile Slough and had a picnic and boating regatta. But fishing—nil.

OUR MANY "ports-of-call" showed our localite addicts spent the weekend either gardening or resting. Exceptions were Chet Arthur (Arthur's Liquors) and Rocky Poultin motoring up to Lake Berryessa and limiting out on fine bass. Chet also nailed a "cat." Fishing was good, but the wind drove most of the fishermen in by early aftrenoon.

Spent an enjoyable evening on the 18th at Dixon with the Sportsmen's Council of Superior Calif. Inc. A fine group of conservationists who represent several thousand of the conversation and civic minded groups of this area. They are much in the "know" on the doings of the legislature in Sacto. The group and their members are strongly against AB 1887 and urge all sportsmen to make a stand and get their representatives to vote against this bill. It has been up twice already and failed to pass but a third try is expected this week. Write that letter or card fellow—STOP THIS BILL.

MOST OF the clubs and their reps are against the Eff N' Gee Commission trying to close district No. 250 to deer hunting. The Department boys have made a study, plenty of water, plenty of browse and the deer herd should be culled. The Commission and Supervisors of the area are the ones who want to close it. It would be wise for all clubs to send their Reps. to Sacto for the 26th meeting and help to keep this open or there will be no deer hunting in this Siskiyou-Modoc area for some time to come.

Will have more on this next week as we are taking in the W.C. Sportsmen's Club meeting, Ike Walton meeting and Bridge-Marina Yacht Club meeting this week.

Pat Fleet Is MVP Of St. Mary's '9'

Senior Pat Fleet was selected St. Mary's College Most Valuable Baseball Player for 1961.

Outfielder Fleet batted .304 and led the team in stolen bases and runs batted in.

It was Fleet's first year on the team.

Freshman Jim Goedert won the Gaels' batting title with a .328 average.

The third baseman who batted lead-off for St. Mary's was on base 42 of the 80 times he came to the plate. Making use of his great speed, Goedert collected 16 of his 21 hits on bunts. He also led the team in walks and runs scored.

The pitching award was won by sophomore Mike Cunningham.

Cunningham was the regular catcher as a freshman. He had never pitched before, but he compiled a 3-4 record and the best earned-run average of any St. Mary's pitcher.

He also caught several games when the regular catcher was injured.

Coach Andy Sloan is losing only two members of the squad because of graduation. The Gaels' record this year was 7-19.

The entire infield will return next season. This year they turned in 24 double plays and one triple play.

Vince Rojas plays shortstop, Al Ferreira is the second baseman, Andy Pilara plays first and leading hitting Goedert is at third base.

Outfielders Pat Smaldino, Denny Goza, Steve Pruitt and Tony Aiello will also return next year.

The entire pitching staff will be back with the exception of senior Bob Combatalade.

Miramonte Golfers Tie for 1st Place

Miramonte's golfers defeated Las Lomas Monday, 6-3, to move into a first place tie with Acalanes. The Dons were idle this week.

Rod Robinson of Miramonte fired a one-under-par 34 to take medalist honors. His opponent, Ted Roessler, had a 38.

Miramonte now has a 6-1 record in the Foothill standings.

In other matches: Jim Roessler (LL) defeated Steve Baker, 39-40; Mark Rasmussen (M) defeated Gene Delaveaga, 42-43; Jeff Knudson (M) defeated Mike Williamson, 36-39; Jerry Nordeman (LL) defeated John Spinola, 38-42; Jim Trumbley (M) defeated Bob O'Donnell, 39-42.

PRESENTING a movie camera to Acalanes High School for the filming of sporting events are Arolf Salo and Bruce Stringer (right) of the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce. Rolfe (Buzz) Williams, the new Acalanes football coach and Bud Stevens, last year's football coach and now Dean of Boys at Acalanes, accept the camera for the school's athletic department.

Picture Is Future Tax Discussed

The future tax picture in Contra Costa County was discussed by the members of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association at its first regional meeting Wednesday in the cafeteria of the Pittsburg High School.

Comments upon probable taxes next year were offered by county board of supervisors chairman Joe Silva and county administrator J. P. McBrien.

President L. E. Carbert introduced the directors of the association and led a general discussion on tax problems in the county and particularly in the eastern area.

Presentations were also made by Ben Goldberger, general chairman of the East Contra Costa Taxpayers' Committee, and Harry L. Morrison, Jr., secretary of the county tax group. Those attending will be greeeted by Pittsburg's Mayor Vincent Davi.

Berkeley Alumni Slate Reunion

A sizable Central Contra Costa contingent will attend the 30th reunion of the senior class of 1931, Berkeley High School, at the Claremont Hotel tomorrow.

The social event, including cocktails and dinner dancing, will be held from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

General chairman is Oakland attorney Robert M. Davis of 18 Normandy Lane, Orinda. He has headed the class organization for its get-togethers every five years.

SERVING on the committee are Robert Rochester of 380 Camino Sobrante, and Dave Wallace of 314 Espira, both Orinda.

Among Contra Costans expected to attend are:

Orinda, George Driscoll, 23 Carisbrook Drive; Deane Langworthy, 37 Southwood Drive; Walter Christie, Jr., 23 El Cerano; George Clifford, 163 Camino Pablo; Katherine Knox Brobeck, 120 Sleepy Hollow Lane; Charles McKeown, 16 Carisbrook Drive; James Winfree, 74 Loma Vista Drive.

LAFAYETTE, Merle Brown, 919 Carl Street; Elizabeth Evans Smith, 3489 Black Hawk Drive; Dorothy Morton Pidgeon, 962 Acalanes Road; Ione and Dave Sargent, 721 Glenside Drive; Monroe Allen, 886 Mountain View; Ed Deemer, 3637 Brook; Robert Pedder, 4163 Mt. Diablo Blvd.; Helen Meeker Searight, 3195 Sommerset Drive.

Moraga, Carl Schwedhelm, Rheem Blvd.; George Meyer, 105 Devin Drive.

Walnut Creek, Frank Cavillera, Sam Deran, 2206 Tice Blvd.; William Granados, 105 Grover Lane; Marjorie Schimmel, 2830 Kinney Drive; Allen Minasian, 75 Alberta Terrace.

Trophy for Poodle

The highest scoring dog special trophy award for a Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club member has been presented to Frank Scherf and his miniature poodle "Gay."

They earned a score of 198 in Novice A class in the 14th annual obedience trial held in Walnut Creek.

Ned Kerr and "Ducette," standard poodle, ran close, scoring 197 in Novice A, winning the second place trophy.

Third place was Scherf with his poodle "Cherie," scoring 196 in the utility ring and fourth place was awarded to Mrs. Louise Cabral with "Niki" and a score of 195 in Open B.

The junior handler award was presented to Kathy Scott, with "Cindy."

Jerry Emanuelson and his German shepherd "Monte" won the trophy for the highest scoring dog belonging to a new club member.

The perpetual trophy, donated by Sigfinn and Anita Bartz-Johannessen, former club members now living in Bergen, Norway, was given to Scherf and "Gay" by last year's winners, Clark and Betty Lou Hood.

Recognition went to Mike Tarkington and "Edward," English sheep dog; Jean Reyenga and "Hans," weimaraner; Betty Lou Hood and "Nellie Brown," poodle; Lee Noakes and "Tina," German shepherd; and Pat Bowen with "Blaze," German shepherd.

They earned qualifying scores in Novice A, thus adding a "leg" towards their companion dog degree.

members were presented miniature trophy cups, each engraved to express appreciation for their participation in the obedience show, by trial secretary Mrs. Florence Fox.

The quarterly potluck supper meeting will be June 10 at the Walnut Creek Sportsmen Club.

Movies taken of the recent trial will be shown by Clark Hood. Nominations of officers will be accepted, preparatory to the election held in July.

Governor---Here's Report To Save State $25,000

By LARRY JACKSON

The big question up Sacto way seems to be the stripping of the trees and brush from the levees and canals by the U.S. Engineers. Soooo—Our Brownie in Sacramento dips into the state till for 25 G's for investigation and study of the problem.

If we may be permitted—we're gonna do it anyway—we would like to put in our two-bits worth of our personal investigation and viewing, and perhaps save the poor taxpayer that 25 G's.

For sometime now we have had many complaints from the boating fraternity about the amount of debris in the river and the damage it is, and has been doing to the water craft. Most of the complaints seem to be against the U.S. Engineers stripping and the methods used.

WE DROVE up stream on the lookout for the engineers, stopping off at several spots to talk to, and with, the landing operators, bait and tackle shops, boat outfitters and the old timers along the way who know their river far better than this scribe.

Opinions were varied to say the least.

The consensus was that there was NOT an unusual amount of debris in the water. There was some damage to craft to be sure, but not more than usual and some of the oldtimers lay a lot of the blame on the new batch of boatmen who do not know the river or its pitfalls, as well as speed and carelessness.

We found the engineers at work just down stream from Courtland.

We sat and watched the operation for sometime. Frankly we did not see one tree or part of trees enter the water to float down stream. The operation was set up by one man cutting down the trees with a chain saw, then the crane from the road on the levee, picking up the refuse and dragging it up the levee almost to roadside and stacking it. Tree stumps, 2 to 2½ feet high, were left embedded in the levee.

THE MASSES of branches of trees dragging in the water at the very water's edge are the main cause of levee damage—this we gained from talks with those conducting the operation as well as the over-all talks with the old times.

The change of tides and currents and the sagging branches create more damage to the levees than any other single item. This action tends to loosen the tree roots and weaken the levee.

The most distressing action to us was that not only were the trees along the water edge cut, but almost every tree along the levees were cut as well.

Many we thought should be left for the nature lovers and a certain amount of shade and unless very high river currents take place they would not be a menace in time of flood or high water.

True, this butchering of the trees along the river makes for a barren area and view. It ruins the esotic beauty of the river, but the operation—it seems—must be carried out for the levee safety sake. We do feel, however, that a little more discrimination could be shown in this stripping and more of the trees above the high water mark left as a beauty feature.

The engineers are taking the easy way out as this partial trimming would cause them added work and possibly more of the tree branches would be left to float down stream. Some of these areas are very heavy with cover and pose a problem to get at easily. Most of the brush is left growing in places and affords some beauty.

HOWEVER, the banks are, in most places, just barren ground and tree stumps, some of which may leaf out again in time.

The trimming is needed for safety sake and we can assure our readers that none of the bigger trees, stumps of branches are left to float down stream.

High tides might drag some of this refuse off the banks and into the water but this does not seem likely at the present time.

The series of dams up stream tend to control the flow of water and fears of a mass flood condition of the past years seems very doubtful.

We noticed a barge heading upstream which swerved into the middle of the channel to avoid the tree cutting operation. After it passed we noticed an old water-logged stump bobbing in the river off the stern of the tugboat.

This was an old timer and possibly the passing barge and tug, the low tide or vibrations dislodged it from its resting place and sent it down stream looking for a boat to run into.

This stripping is a problem. Oh, we know the old bromide—"you've got money to spend, spend it. Or you get no more for next year."

We do not feel that this is the case. We personally feel that the engineers have a job assigned to them and they are doing it to the best of their ability. They are showing care in holding down debris to a minimum.

THE ONLY suggestion we could make is to clear the cut trees from the levees and not leave them as an eyesore or a possible flood menace. They are not a pretty sight and with a high water level could cause heavy damage in more ways than one. Better use of the wood could be made than to let it rot and cause ground erosion. Where do we go from here, your guess is as good as mine.

This is a government and state problem and should be ironed out without the confusion or expense of a study-investigation. Let's just strip the harmful trees and foilage, then truck it away.

Sooo—Governor, put the 25 G's back in the till. Here is your needed report. Personally, we will settle for gas money and a fair day's salary.

To our boating friends—it must be done and is being done in an orderly fashion—no debris worth mentioning is entering the water that would cause boat damage.

Your youngster may not understand the word "security," yet he shows his need for it in dozens of meaningful ways — each time he reaches up for your hand, or runs to your arms when he's hurt, or curls asleep on your lap. He doesn't know the meaning of "life insurance," either, but it could help fill this basic need for security if you weren't there to do so. The right man to consult about such matters is the New York Life Agent in your community.

WC Team Second In Swim Meet

The Walnut Creek Soltau Swim School finished second in team competition last Sunday in the Senior Pacific Association Synchronized Swim Meet in Salinas.

In the team competition, the Marionettes of San Francisco, first place winners in 1961 Senior National Indoor Championships, took top honors with a score of 108.758.

The Soltau Club team finished with a score of 86.6566.

The members of the Soltau team were: Nancy Stephens, Judy McFadden, Joan Winter, Linda McFadden, Pat Mooney and Dorothea Sollenberger, all of Walnut Creek.

In the solo division, Dianne Howell just missed fourth place when a two-point penalty was assessed because her record ran over the allowed five-minute maximum. Her score in fifth place was 91.745.

First three places in the duet class were taken by the Merionettes of San Francisco.

In fourth place, with a score of 83.375, were Linda and Judy McFadden from Soltau Swim Club.

Carol Deardorff of Danville and Dianne Howell of Alamo, representing Howell Swim Club, were fifth with a combined score of 81.4475.

In the stunt competition, Nancy Stephens placed sixth with a total stunt score of 37.485. Dianne Howell was in eighth place, in a field of 24 contestants, with a score of 35.695.

In senior competition, open only to girls 12 and over, the stunt score is based on the scoring of six stunts; three compulsory stunts drawn by the officials preceding the meet and three optional stunts chosen by the contestant.

Gerald Hunt Not a Recruit

Gerald F. Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Hunt of 880 Hawthorne Drive, Walnut Creek, was graduated from recruit training, April 21, at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

Here's Xway Driving Tips

Expressways and freeways are the nation's safest highways, but their high-speed characteristics call for special precautions on the part of drivers.

The AAA motorists' organization offered these tips on expressway driving:

Avoid heavy, sleep-inducing meals to prevent "highway hypnosis."

Glance at passing scenery from time to time to avoid steady focusing of the eyes ahead.

Stop every 100 miles or so for coffee or a "break."

In the event of an emergency, pull completely off the road.

Because of the high speeds on expressways, allow a comfortable distance between your car and the one in front.

Enter the expressway at the same speed as moving traffic.

Be alert to road markings, signs and signals.

Check frequently in your rear view mirror, and keep pace with traffic.

Vista Grande School Adopts 'Split' Reading

Adopting a staggered attendance reading schedule at mid-year has proved most successful by children, teachers and parents of Vista Grande School in Danville.

This method of organizing for reading instruction is not new to Contra Costa County.

Elementary schools in Orinda, as well as some in the Mt. Diablo district, are currently making use of the method.

Berkeley, Oakland and Hayward are among Bay Area School districts which established this form of organization well over 15 years ago.

THE STAGGERED attendance reading schedule is sometimes referred to as the "slip" or "split" schedule because all children are not in the classroom during the crucial reading period.

As it operates in Vista Grande's primary grades, approximately one half of the students are in class from 9 to 9:55. After the 10 o'clock recess, the remainder of the students arrive at school and the entire class works together until 1:55.

At this time, the first group of readers leave school and the late arrivers remain for basic reading instruction until 3.

Norseman Awards Made Last Night At DV College

The Norseman Awards were presented last night at Diablo Valley College.

In connection with the awards banquet there was a get-acquainted, no-host social hour at the Concord Inn for members of the Diablo Valley College Alumni Association.

The awards are presented to DVC students who have excelled in specific fields of academic and extra-curricular endeavor.

The awards are given annually in the spring semester.

Len Lanfranco acted as master of ceremony at the banquet. Bob Rusk, student body president, was the featured speaker.

The candidates for the awards were: Vocational Arts: Mary Lewis, Martinez; Kay Northway, Pleasant Hill, and Ken Patterson, Antioch; Language Arts: Jay Brown, Pleasant Hill; Alice Doyle, Walnut Creek, and Haruko Hamanaka, Concord; Drama and Speech: Roger Elliott, Pleasant Hill; Mike Kimball, Pleasant Hill, and Joslyn Stephens, Antioch; Student Government: Paris Farzar, Concord; Len Lanfranco, Concord, and Bob Rusk, Walnut Creek; Natural Science, John Huddleson, Martinez; Dennis Pisila, Walnut Creek, and Jonnelle Rochelle, Antioch; Social Science: Willard Jones, Pleasant Hill; Margaret Richards, Alamo, and Allen Sommerstrom, Walnut Creek.

Humanities: Marsha Studebaker, Lafayette; Kathleen Bray, Concord; Joan Brazil, Concord, and Robert Hunn, Concord; Music: Dorothy Millar, Walnut Creek; Math and Engineering: Mohamed Droubi, Alamo; Edward Greeneich, Lafayette, and Michael Ploeger, Concord; Journalism: Robin Cooper, Lafayette, and Bill Winniford, Clyde; Business: Marty McGrath, Concord; Gordon Peterson, Orinda, and Sue Jaques, Lafayette; Athletics: Don Montgomery, Pacheco; Jeff Busby, Pleasant Hill, and John Rogers, Antioch.

Summer Camp for Scouts

Summer Camp season opens on June 17 for the Boy Scouts of Mt. Diablo Council with a full-time program at Camp Herms in El Cerrito.

Four days a week—Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays—will be for Boy Scouts on an individual, patrol, or troop basis.

Traditional Scoutcraft skills will include hiking, campcraft, cooking, merit badge instruction, archery and swimming.

TWO DAYS a week—Tuesday and Thursday—will be especially for Cub Scouts.

For the first time, Camp Wolfeboro Scouts will have the services of a full-time nurse.

Mrs. Jat Fisher will assist physicians, who will be scheduled on a week-at-a-time basis by Dr. Ralph Kirk, Health and Safety Committee chairman.

A total of 70 units and 1700 boys are signed up for the camping season, June 24 to August 19.

In charge of the camps are professionally trained Scout executives, supplemented by high-caliber summer staff.

PROGRAM director will be Brooks Kuehl, Concord District executive.

MISS CAROLYN EPSTEIN, Parkmead Upper Grade teacher, discusses the SRA Reading Lab with Richard Marks and Vicki Urlaub of the seventh grade.

Reading 'Revised'

Miss Carolyn Epstein, a seventh grade teacher at Parkmead Upper Grade School, has been using the Science Research Associates (SRA) Reading Laboratory for about three months as a major part of the reading program.

Elmo Giulieri, principal, said he has been enthusiastic about the growth made by individual students and feels that the SRA achievement test results in reading will prove this.

The lab contains an assortment of reading materials, designed to improve both the students' speed and comprehension on 10 increasingly difficult levels, said Miss Epstein.

BY USING the lab, the teacher is able to challenge each student at his own particular level of reading development.

The teacher is able to reach all phases of reading; understanding, interpretation, vocabulary, word make-up, reading in context.

On the whole, the lab contains the kinds of materials individually suited to each student's needs not otherwise available to the teacher.

Since all work is administered and evaluated by the students themselves (and guided by the teacher), they have become aware of their own reading problems and have learned some ways with which to deal with them.

Competition with each other is kept at a minimum; the emphasis is on the individual, said Miss Epstein.

ANOTHER great advantage of the SRA lab, she said, is that it helps improve study habits. Students must constantly read all varieties of directions and follow them.

Accuracy is stressed, and is essential. Students are made immediately aware of mistakes, if any, and thus learn to be more accurate and precise.

They also learn a new method of reading and study developed by the Air Force called the SQ3R (survey, question, read, review, recite) which, if applied, will improve understanding and retention.

Auditors Picked

The firm of Thyken-Smith and Company will audit the Walnut Creek School District's records for the year ending next June 30, trustees recently decided.

The fee will not exceed $900.

Dissent Noted To Extension Of Phone Service

An opinion dissenting from authorized extended telephone service in the Martinez-Concord-Walnut Creek area has been filed by George Grover, member of the California Public Utilities Commission.

The authorization is for local toll-free phone calls between Martinez and Concord.

The public hearing on the matter was held March 8 in Martinez before Examiner James Haley.

IN HIS opinion, Grover said in part, "The evidence shows that a significant number of subscribers will now be forced to pay for service which they do not wish to buy . . .

" . . . the effect of the decision will be to reduce the cost to the heavy users, who will henceforth be subsidized by those who have previously made little or no use of the service.

"The distribution of business calls from Martinez to Walnut Creek is . . . one sided.

"In a test month, one-third of the business subscribers made no calls to Walnut Creek, whereas 69 per cent of such calls were made by only 8 per cent of the subscribers," he said.

MONTHLY charges when extended service goes into effect, includes the following:

Concord and Walnut Creek—Business one-party, $1.25; business two-party, 40 cents. Residence one-party, 35 cents; residence two-party, 5 cents.

Martinez — Business one-party, $3.25; business two-party, $1.90. Residence one-party, 50 cents; residence two-party, 45 cents.

Police Officials To Discuss Youth Crime on KKIS

"The Fight Against Youth Crime," discussed by three top county law enforcement officers, will be heard in a continuing radio series of public information on United Crusade agencies Sunday at 1:45 p.m. on Station KKIS, 880 kilocycles.

"Contra Costa illustrates its interest in young people by the large sums of money spent for its schools, recreation, child care and well-being. Playing a vital role in character building and youth guidance are the youth agencies supported by the United Crusade. This report on the fight against youth crime is an honest evaluation of how our youth agencies are meeting the problem," President Dana Murdock said.

Duncan Knudsen of Lafayette, president of the Diablo Council of Boy Scouts, serves as moderator for the entire series.

John Nejedly, district attorney for Contra Costa County; John Davis, county probation officer, and Ron Orin, Concord chief of police, will present an evaluation of how the youth agencies are meeting the problem of juvenile crime.

Last Sunday a panel of experts from the Mental Health Association discussed "Is Your Attitude Showing?"

They covered new vistas of hope and new areas of concern in mental health. Panel members were: Dr. Anita Uhl Brothers, Berkeley psychiatrist; Miss Mary McGrath, Martinez school psychologist, and Harold Mutnick, Lafayette attorney.

Sierra Woodlands Camp Registrations Open Now

A limited number of openings are available for the first session at Girl Scout Camp—Sierra Woodlands—June 26 to July 8. This is an ideal opportunity for girls not registered as scouts to enjoy the benefits of camp, according to Mrs. A. J. Marshall, publicity.

Any girl who will be in grades six through 12 this fall is eligible until the quota is filled. Forms for registration are available at the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Headquarters, 3570 Terrace Way, Lafayette, or phone AT 4-4414 for additional information.

Sierra Woodlands is approximately 220 miles from Diablo Valley, situated high in the Sierras eight miles from Sierra City on the famous Gold Lake Road. Its mountainous setting is enhanced by tall pines, mountain meadows and an abundance of lakes and streams.

"The elevation of 6000 feet insures freedom from poison oak and supplies a healthful, invigorating change of climate for the camper," Mrs. Marshall said.

CAMPERS live in units of 24 girls near their own age and are supervised by four carefully selected counselors. Each unit plans its own activities with staff guidance.

Activities include hiking, swimming, fishing, cook-outs, overnights, nature study, creative crafts, archery, folk dancing, special ceremonies, songs around the campfire at day's end.

Sierra Woodlands is a primitive camp and girl scouts find this is an excellent opportunity to work on the Pioneer Badge; however, the girls are urged to go to camp prepared to work on any badge requirement.

THERE ARE no visiting days during camp but parents wishing to see the site, enjoy the fellowship of camping with other local families and at the same time give a vitally needed helping hand in opening camp are invited to sign up for one of the following family work weekends: May 27-28, June 3-4, 10 and 11 and 17 and 18. Interested families should call William Clyatt, YE 4-5950, or evenings CL 4-3154.

Until the first session quota is filled, girls who are registered for other sessions may also attend first and registrations will be accepted on a "first come" basis.

Special Meeting Honors Almona Line Officers

Almona Chapter held a special meeting April 29 honoring line officers.

On this occasion the chapter was honored by visits from Grand Conductress Carol M. Jensen; Deputy Grand Matron Virginia McFarland of the 28th District; their own Anna C. Moscrop, grand representative from Washington, D.C., to California, and Junior Past Worthy Grand Patron James Millard.

"May Day" was the theme for the evening, with carrying pieces and banquet room decorations appropriate in nature.

THOSE honored were Associate Matron Eleanor Ahlf, Associate Patron Martin Quinn, Conductress Viola Crewe and Associate Conductress Betty Horgan.

These officers had the pleasure of being host to their many visiting friends with corresponding offices in their East Bay associations.

Following the meeting a skit served as the medium for a presentation to these line officers by Worthy Matron Edna Briner and Worthy Patron Edward Burr.

Banquet room committee for this occasion was Mrs. Ida LaRose, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCarthy. Members of the flower committee were Edna DeMartini, Lucy Whyte and Emolene Near.

Mrs. Palmer Is 'Lifer'

Mrs. Rodney Palmer was awarded a PTA honorary life membership at the May 9 meeting of the Buena Vista school unit.

A member since the school opened 11 years ago, Mrs. Palmer has served in many areas of PTA and community work.

Now completing her second year as library chairman, she heads the staff of mothers who help children with research in the school library under the part-time direction of the school and district librarians.

Mrs. Palmer is also active as a Sunday school teacher, scout den mother and on the adult committee of the American Field Service, according to Mrs. Edwin Shirey, who made the presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer are the parents of four children in four Walnut Creek area schools.

2 Local Students Win $150 Awards

Four Bay Area high school seniors emerged as winners of thousand-dollar grand prizes last Friday in the San Francisco finals of the 1961 Bank of America Achievement Awards competition.

Their selection over 32 other finalists marked a high point in their school careers and a happy ending to more than three months of screening by judges at school, zone and area levels.

The $1000 winners are from Berkeley, Vallejo, Los Gatos and Hayward.

Second and third place winners were also named in each of four study fields.

They won cash awards of $500 and $250 respectively.

The remaining 24 finalists were awarded prizes of $150.

Don Jensen of 210 Lakewood Road, Walnut Creek, was a $150 winner.

The Las Lomas student entered in the science and mathematics field.

Natalie Hartanov of 151 Camino Don Miguel, Orinda, was another $150 winner.

The Miramonte student entered in the vocational arts field.

Glovers Will Lead Parent Faculty Club

Mr. and Mrs. John Glover of 29 Sharmar Court, Walnut Creek, have been elected president of the Tice Valley Parent Faculty Club, it was announced.

Other officers are Chester Muller, first vice president; Bob Henry, second vice president; Mrs. Della Nordsletten, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Pat Dippo, recording secretary; Howard Price, treasurer; Keith Hudson, parliamentarian; A. Ashuckian, auditor.

City Fathers To Washington

Walnut Creek Mayor Fred Sanders and Councilman Frank Marshall will attend the U.S. Mayors' Conference in Washington, D.C., June 10-14.

Councilman Robert Nelson has indicated he cannot attend, but Councilmen Newell Case and Douglas Page have not definitely indicated.

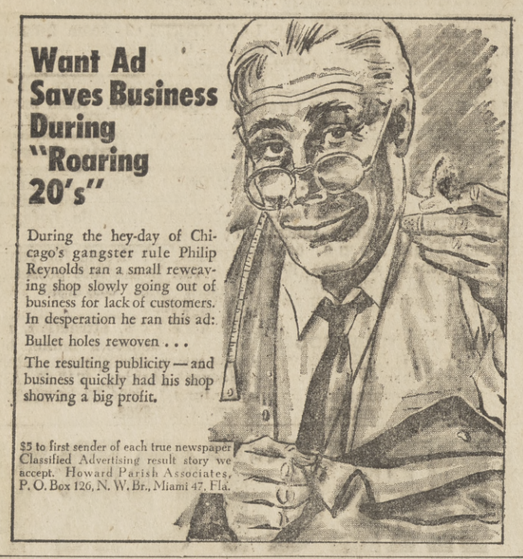
WANT-AD WONDERS Trade Mark



Want Ad Saves Business During "Roaring 20's"

During the hey-day of Chicago's gangster rule Philip Reynolds ran a small reweaving shop slowly going out of business for lack of customers. In desperation he ran this ad:

Bullet holes rewoven . . .

The resulting publicity — and business quickly had his shop showing a big profit.

School Officials Kept Busy as Year Nears End

By YVONNE MAUZEY
DR 6-4083

It looks like our summer storms have arrived, cold weather, thunder, lightning and rain for the past week. Sure not like the summer I think of. But I guess this is typical for this area at this time of the year. Our May flowers will just have to wait until June.

Speaking of June, it will soon be the end of school and so plans are being made for next September's start of school.

Mr. Toll, Mrs. Cunningham, the kindergarten teacher and Fran Bergman, the county nurse, attended the cerebral palsy school in San Francisco Friday. They met at 8 a.m. and made a tour of the area, and talked with the medical doctors, the psychiatrist, the doctor of the area and the therapist, attending special language and therapy handicap classes, the dining room and the dorm, discussing placement of a student for next fall. The boy is undergoing tests now, and will still attend the Cerebral Palsy school one day a week.

THE DINNER for the County School Board was held last Tuesday at the Clayton Valley High School. Al Haskell, Bob Trask and Charles Toll attended.

Don Falconer was elected president of the board for next year by a unanimous decision.

The Contra Costa elementary schools adm. get-together was held last week also and was attended by Bob Trask and Charles Toll. With all the meetings these men have been attending of late I wonder if their families will know them when they get home for a while.

The Lafayette Youth Association has invited all Moraga students and residents to their summer swim, dive and tennis school, to be held at the Acalanes High School. A student must be 44 inches tall to sign up.

Dick Dobbins is coach of swimming and water activities. Swim lessons will be $3, diving $5 and tennis $5 for two weeks or 10 lessons.

Classes will be limited to 10 students. The tennis group must be 10 years old and furnish their own raquet. Notices have been passed out at school giving dates. You must sign up by Saturday at the Acalanes High School cafeteria.

HAROLD LATTER informs me Boy Scout Troop No. 212 had their first committee meeting and laid the groundwork for future activities.

Brownie troop No. 34, led by Marie Wright and Ruby Pagliero canceled their cookout because of the pouring rain. This troop is sure having a time with the weatherman. He just doesn't seem to be on their side.

Fly-ups for troop 34 will be held June 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the old school. The fifth and sixth grade Girl Scouts will be the color guard and the third grade Brownies will sing the Goodby song. Laurie Patterson, neighborhood chairman, will be a guest.

Troop 34 is planning their cookout after fly-ups and their overnight during the summer at the Casto's acres, with a ride on Pekay the burro thrown in.

Maybe the weatherman will be good to them next time, being they are making their reservations so far in advance.

GIRL SCOUT troop 23 had their overnight at Twin Canyon May 13. They cooked their breakfast of bacon and eggs on their individual buddy burners. The dinner menu included American chop suey.

A rather frightening thing happened after lights out and all was quiet. The girls heard a funny noise and, thinking it might be a rattler, many flashlights were pointed toward the sound. And what should they see but one diligent Girl Scout who had forgotten to brush her teeth doing her duty.

The kids at the Friday night dance had a good time even though only a few attended. It seems the band party and the Friday night dance got their wires crossed and had parties the same night.

Pat and Ruth Freitas will chaperone the next dance to be held June 2. A suggestion has been made to invite the fifth grade to the final dance, as they will be in the sixth grade next year and be included in the dancing group.

Senior Banquet Tonight Has South Pacific Theme

By PENNY COUDEN

There will be "happy talk" among those of us who attend the Senior Banquet tonight here in the Acalanes gym. This theme is a take-off on the production of "South Pacific," and will combine a cheerful South Sea atmosphere with good food and some professional entertainment.

Even though the butcher paper figures decorating the walls will be speaking in sign language, you can bet that as far as the hungry seniors are concerned the good food will speak even plainer language.

THE AIR at this banquet will be filled with "happy talk" about the entertainment, too. I can't tell you what that will be, because it's top secret and only known to the senior officers who chose it, but with a little persuasive sweet talk we have found out that the class will be hosting a famous combo from some San Francisco night club, and a personality from Los Angeles.

No doubt the entertainment will be tops, for traditionally, the Senior Banquet is the affair on which the Senior Class splurges most of the earnings it has accumulated over the past four years from class dances, booths at Mardi Gras, noon movies, etc., and this class of '61 has hoarded about $1400.

Patsy Richardson and Linda Greblo, senior class citizenship representatives, have been in charge of the banquet, supported by a staff of happy talking and hard working seniors. Marcia Worthing and Marty Painter have directed the construction of decorations.

SENIORS can expect to enter through a three-dimensional bamboo hut into a world (alias, the gym) of palm trees, coconuts, ivy and oriental faces and hands painted on butcher paper. On the back wall, two 10-foot figures, one of a hula dancer and another of her partner, will be dancing in the glow of spotlights.

Kay Matusek has undertaken their construction. Cardboard, but otherwise delectable fish will float on a blue paper set atop the tables, says Sandy Underwood, chairman of these decorations.

It's no secret that the teachers have "volunteered" (as they do every year) to wait on the tables. (The only time they really mind this job is when a banquet theme calls for especially low tables, making them stoop to serve.) And parents don't feel sorry for the teachers, or feel they are humbling themselves, for most of the faculty consider this to be their golden opportunity to get back at certain of their favorites by "accidentally spilling coffee" here, or "forgetting to serve until last."

SPEAKING of food, you parents can rest assured that your student is getting the seven basics. Here's a menu that justifies the $2.25 dinner ticket: Roast beef or swordfish steak, hors d'oeuvres, string beans, mashed potatoes, fresh fruit salad, rolls and butter, milk and coffee, and ice cream-cake roll.

TAPPACLOTH designed menus, created and silk-screened by Nancy Waldman, will be present at each place setting. Janet Bacon wrote the introduction inside, followed by Pat Richardson and Linda Greblo's description of the food.

With the promise of such good fun and food, you can bet that practically the whole senior class is attending. Avril Hughes has been in charge of tickets and hasn't had much trouble selling them. Many of those attending plan to follow up on the banquet by attending the Diablo Assembly.

All in all, the main item on the menu tonight will be FUN!

W. W. Danforth Goes to Kentucky

Army Second Lt. William W. Danforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Danforth, 3334 N. Lucilis Lane, Lafayette, recently was assigned to the 101st Airborne Division's 501st Infantry at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

The 101st, a major Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) unit, constantly maintains an immediate readiness force for airborne deployment to any area of the world.

Lieutenant Danforth, a forward observer in Mortar Battery in the infantry, entered the Army last June.
